Welcome earthlings. I, Imperial Commander Williams of the planet Hovni welcome you to a conspiracy packed edition of Truth Seekers Review. We have been studying your planet for some time now and have realised that there is a great lack of "full on", as you earthlings say it, information on the UFO subject. Very often the most juicy articles - which form the backbone of researchers ground material (and eventually ends up in books anyhow), is left out of publications. We wish to re-address this with an article called "The Krill Files". 'Crll' is allegedly the name of an alien that was captured from a downed saucer in the United States. The alien survived many years and imparted information to the authorities about it's home world and many advanced technologies. It is though that the anonymous author of the Krill files may have chosen his pen-name from the aliens name. This article is provided as was found, and we understand that some of the information may be a bit hard to accept. We always suggest that the reader makes their own minds up about what they find in these types of articles, as we only have our own experiences to make us believe that this sort of article could be a true representation of the ET situation.

I have been busy around the country with my hobby of planet Earth bunker spotting and human military investigation and these are outlined in the articles Your Guide To Bunker Spotting, and What is Aurora? It is strange because recently I have been inundated with people supplying information on Rudloe Manor and other bunkers. Some have not left their details with me, and seemed reluctant to talk to me for too long. I would urge those people to contact me again if they have any worthy information. I am a good listener, and can keep conversations confidential if required.

Ken Parsons continues his investigations into the connections between UFO's, Ley Lines sites and military transmitters in his article Hidden Truths. I must admit that after looking in the South Wales area, many transmitters are placed on ley lines or at least near to important ancient sites of special interest.

One late item of news follows - which couldn't be fitted on the Newsdesk page.

SETI Project comes down to earth.

A group calling themselves the SETI (Search For Extraterrestrial Life) League are calling for all radio amateurs to help them in their search of the skies. The project co-ordinator has stated that anybody who has access to a 3 metre dish, receiver and computer sensing software can take part. With few astronomers or radio amateurs taking part the project would have taken 5000 years to complete, but with 5000 taking part the latest survey would only take one year. It is hoped that many enthusiasts with the equipment to spare will take up the challenge. Anybody who wishes to get further information on the project and exact specifications of equipment may do so by writing to The SETI League, PO Box 555, Little Ferry, New Jersey, 07643. USA.

So thanks for your support. We are always happy for people to support us further by subscribing. Last but not least, we are always on the look out for articles on your research - and it doesn't have to be UFO's or paranormal; cover-ups and conspiracies, or just thoughts on life are acceptable. We would like to have feedback from you on any subject covered in the magazine too. So hope to hear from you soon.

Bob Dean interview. I spent a week with Bob recently and took part in filming of a interview tape with him. This tape is on sale at £12 approx. from UFOVISION Tel. 01275 - 544293. I don't get royalties from this tape, so I only suggest your purchasing one because it is very informative, and very well produced (all broadcast gear was used!). The interview will give an insight into this mans very interesting career, which caused him to have knowledge of UFO's through Above Top Secret documents he was privilege to.

Also we are hoping to return to Rudloe to unearth more bunker facts. Intelligence information we have been leaked has told us of even more sites of interest in the Rudloe/Corsham underground town complex.

UFOs a flight of fancy, says MoD

The following article appeared in the Daily Mail on April 24th 1996.

Defence chiefs have broken decades of silence with an unprecedented statement dismissing the possible existence of UFOs. Whitehall has finally decreed that flying saucers and visitors from distant worlds are simply a product of the imagination. The announcement has astonished defence analysts, who point out that the Ministry of Defense has never before responded despite thousands of reports of mysterious sightings.

The official statement - published in RAF News - comes just a fortnight after a television documentary claimed that the highest levels of government had not discounted the possibility of life on other planets.

The BBC-2 program Secrets of the Paranormal revealed that an unnamed MoD source had claimed that a Government UFO monitoring unit had confirmed reports of unidentified craft moving at impossible speeds.

The source told UFO investigator Jenny Randles: "We had radar reports of objects traveling at 4,000mph across the north sea into British airspace - objects as big as battleships." But RAF News, the service's official newspaper, responded by saying there was "no evidence which might substantiate the existence of such phenomena".

It was said to have been ordered to print the article in a bid to quell public interest which had escalated since the broadcast. The statement - which described the majority of sightings as being "very vague" - also denied the existence of an official UFO investigation unit. It insisted that the Government only operated a two man team known as the Secretariat (Air Staff) 2A, who provided administrative support for RAF operations.

While admitting that the team receives 300 unexplained aerial sightings a year, it said UFOs were "just one of a whole range of responsibilities". Last night an MoD insider said: "It's quite extraordinary. There have been thousands of programs about UFOs and only now the RAF decides to say something. One can't help wondering why that should be."

Regardless of the MoD's false statement, there is evidence that clearly substantiates the existence of "such phenomena", as well as clearly showing that the military has enough of an interest in UFOs to send out two helicopters to investigate sightings as they occur. This happened at Shirebrook near Mansfield on the evening of August 23rd 1994 and the whole event was captured on video by Darryl Keithspence of Mansfield.

His night time video, shown on an episode of Schofeild's Quest in 1995, shows a UFO hovering above the distant city lights that is approached by two helicopters after a few minutes. As the helicopters move in closer to the UFO, it is then seen to blink out, just like many other UFOs appear to do in videos that have been taken world-wide. In reply to a letter from us inquiring about the incident, Kerry Philpott from the MoD (Secretariat Air Staff 2A) had the following to say:

"As you clearly watched "Schofeilds Quest" you will have seen that the MoD gave a statement to the program researchers, which was in fact shown during the program. Although we did receive a report of "two lights in the sky" from a witness at Crick, Matlock, at around 2330 hrs on 23 Aug 94, we were satisfied that there was no evidence to suggest that the sighting represented a matter of defense concern. There was no military air craft booked into Night Low Flying training sector 3A on the evening in question. As you are aware, if there is no evidence which indicates a matter of defence significance there is no requirement, and we are not resourced, to undertake investigations to establish the precise nature of every seemingly inexplicable sight in the sky."

Once again we have this classic situation where the MoD, even though they say that they haven't investigated UFOs to find out what they are, and what they represent, automatically know that the UFO seen is of no defence significance. As well as this they deny that the two helicopters seen on the video are of a military origin. Perhaps the sound of the helicopters on the video could be analysed to find out what type of helicopters they were? If this is possible then we could find out for sure if the helicopters were of a military origin. Maybe the helicopters themselves were of defence significance, that is if they aren't ours!

RAF Bentwaters UFO eyewitness Larry Warren and independent researcher Peter Robbins have at last obtained a deal for their book "Left At East Gate". After almost nine years of putting the story together for a book and getting numerous knock backs from American and British publishers, they finally got a book deal with a New York publisher Marlowe & Co. With a bit of luck "Left At East Gate" will be out in America before Christmas this year, with a possibility of it being released simultaneously in the U.K. The book will surely be an eye opener for anyone interested in what went on around the twin U.S. Air bases of Bentwaters and Woodbridge in Suffolk in December 1980.

New Budd Hopkins Book

Another book to look out for later this year is Budd Hopkins' awaited book on the New York Linda Cortile abduction case. It's due to be released in August or September titled: "Witnessed: The True Story of the Brooklyn Bridge UFO Abductions", and is published by Pocketbooks. Anyone who has followed the case since it first hit the news within UFO circles will know that it will certainly be a landmark book in ufology. Budd has discovered over 20 people who witnessed Linda being abducted from her 12th story apartment in New York in the early hours of November 30th 1989.

American "Science" Programme
Misleads People On Abductions

Earlier this year an episode of the American "Science" series called "Nova", featured a programme on the abduction phenomena titled "Kidnapped by UFOs". Unfortunately the programme's producer / writer / director Denise Dilanni chose to ignore all the strong evidence for abductions and UFOs that was provided by researchers such as Budd Hopkins, and instead produced a programme which outrageously distorted the UFO phenomenon and the work of the researchers involved. Carl Sagan was featured on the programme stating that he believed that all abduction accounts are delusions or hallucinations, regardless of the fact that he has yet to investigate even one abduction claim and has absolutely no evidence or research to back up his uninformed opinion.

Budd Hopkins has written a paper in reply to the programme, which may end up being shown on British TV at some time, so anyone wishing to receive a copy of his paper titled: A Response To Nova's Programme On The UFO Abduction Phenomenon or Science Is Not Always What Science Programs Do, can do so by contacting us at Truth Seekers.

Stanton ET Sample?

An individual provided a small metallic specimen to the International UFO Museum and Research Center in Roswell, NM. He claimed that he was given it by another party who had been given it by a soldier who had picked it up at a crash site near Roswell. The middle man is afraid of being killed. The original collector of the specimen has not been interviewed and may not be alive, so no direct link has been established between a crash and the small sample which had been kept in a frame under glass.

A very preliminary test done at a NM university established that it contained mostly silver and copper and some impurities. There seem to be raised lines on the very thin material as well. These tests certainly provide no reason for claiming that the specimen is of ET origin. However, they do rule out conventional iron, aluminium, nickel, alloys, etc.

I have been in touch with the museum and provided a paper about what to do with a possible ET artifact. Rule #1 is don't go to a University. DO go to a licensed commercial testing lab with experience at performing a very wide range of tests, and substantial involvement in forensic testing especially in court cases involving failure of expensive systems. Universities often won't let names be used, usually can't keep secrets and are much less experienced than commercial labs at finding out important practical properties such as strength, hardness, properties at high temperatures etc.

It appears that testing will be done at a top lab in the near future. No sign to date that the material is very flexible hard or very strong. The press coverage to date has been without much "giggle factor" although it is not always accurate. Tune in next month for more progress and hopefully a photo.

SAGAN Strikes again

Another individual who has made a host of extraordinary unsubstantiated claims is Carl Sagan. For over 30 years he has claimed that there is intelligent life all over the galaxy, that the use of radio telescopes is the way to find them, and that there is no evidence that Earth is being visited by ETs. He has never studied the huge amount of readily available evidence indicating that SOME UFOs are indeed of ET origin and that the subject is a kind of Cosmic Watergate.

His new book "The Demon Haunted World" attacks pseudoscientific claims about UFOs and then proceeds to use the techniques of pseudoscience to attack UFOs, misrepresenting the facts in the Betty and Barney Hill case, in the Roswell and MJ-12 stories, about abductions, etc. Rather than referencing the many scientific studies, his primary source, believe it or not, is the tabloid "Weekly World News"!

I wrote a detailed critique of the book as a last minute addition to my new book "TOP SECRET/MAJIC" due out soon and will publish more. I also intend to renew my challenge to Carl to a UFO debate which I made after the October 1, 1994 Larry King show, (but did not press after I found Carl was getting bone marrow transplants). Now that Carl, my classmate for 3 years at the U. of Chicago, is apparently much better, I will step up the challenge. Almost never has Carl agreed to appear with somebody who is ready to challenge him. Anybody want to sponsor a debate between us?

WHAT IS AURORA?

A report by
Matthew Williams

For some time now there has been speculation in the UFO research world as to the existence of a new spy plane called Aurora. The theories range from this being some form of fast flying delta (triangular) winged fast flying aircraft to it being a levitating disk powered by Alien propulsion systems. The name Aurora was first discovered in a budget document which was released by mistake which listed the project Aurora next to budget spending for the SR-71 Blackbird aircraft. The Blackbird was and still is used as a spy plane and may be the fastest serving aircraft the USAF have at their disposal - this is if the Aurora hasn't taken it's place. Nobody knows for certain if the Aurora is a real plane, as no leaks have appeared to confirm it existence as a real plane.

SR71 - Blackbird

However there was one report in 1990 of a new style delta winged aircraft being spotted by a worker on board a North Sea Oil Rig. The aircraft was being refuelled by a tanker aircraft and escorted by two F14 Tomcat's. Based on the drawings that were made by the oil worker much has been speculated as to this being a new form of aircraft which is in secret development or perhaps now in active service. I would say that whilst there is a possibility for error in the drawings of one witness and over speculation on behalf of aircraft journalists we will have to wait for clearer evidence before stating that this must be Aurora.

Other reports of strange aircraft include a "Bat" winged design which has been dubbed as The "Black Manta". This aircraft seems to use a completely different wing design, which may be part of a Stealth (invisibility to radar) project. There have been blurred photos and even video footage which allege to show this aircraft in action.

It has never been observed that this aircraft has any fast flying or high altitude characteristics, so we will again have to wait and see what the future holds for this aircraft's purpose.

And what of the name Aurora. The dictionary lists Aurora as the Roman goddess of the dawn, and also as the rosy red in the sky before the sun rises or an orange red colour. Would the use of this name suggest the dawn of a new type of aircraft or perhaps it's paint colour? Is it also possible that unlike aircraft that have gone before it does use some new type of propulsion system which is brighter than average and required a name that reflects this observation? If the enthusiasts and aircraft journalists are correct and the Aurora is a new type of aircraft which is shaped like a disk and flies on advanced power systems, then it may be giving off light similar to the UFO's that are spotted by many and this may be the reason it has been labelled Aurora. Many reported UFO's are orange-red sometime orange-yellow in colour so this is certainly something to bear in mind.

The only trouble is with the speculation as to Aurora being a UFO disk shape is that there again is little evidence to back this up. There have been many sightings of disks over all parts of the world true, and there have also been many sightings of lights observed over secret testing areas such as Area 51 in Nevada. Still how can we draw the conclusion that the two are connected. If we are looking for first hand witness evidence of these craft being real there is only one man - Bob Lazar who has come forward to say that he has directly worked on such craft whilst out at Papoose lake, part of Area 51. There is no other information or leaking documentary evidence to say that such craft exist. This again does not mean that they do not exist!

If we look back into the past and study the development and production of secret stealth aircraft we can see that it is possible to create such aircraft in a completely secure and secret environment. No proper leaks were ever brought forth about the U2 or Blackbird aircraft.

U2 60's Spyplane

Although people were seeing these aircraft flying and reporting these facts, nobody was able to say that these spy planes existed until proper disclosures were made. In the case of the U2 a disclosure was made after a diplomatic incident occurred when Francis Gary Powers was shot down over the Soviet Union whilst on a spying mission for the US in a U2. Later again disclosures were made about the Blackbird aircraft, but not until it had enjoyed 10 years of perfect secrecy.

Whilst the SR71 Blackbird was in production, design was already starting on the B2 and F117A Stealth planes. The F117 was flying in 1975 and only got rolled out for the public to see in it's F117A form in 1987. One can now see how the pattern of at least 10 years of secret operation before public disclosure is given. If we project this forward then and say that we have had no new aircraft disclosures since 1987, then there must be new and better aircraft flying which overtake and supersede these older designs, perhaps only to be admitted to by 1997. One can only speculate what the final disclosures on such aircraft would be and if Aurora is included amongst them. It is an interesting choice of date for a disclosure of 1997 as this is the year that many of the Roswell documents would have come to be released and a year that some believe will signify much in the way of UFO disclosure by the Government en masse.

F117A Stealth

Artists impression: Could this be the Aurora SSTO aircraft?

One thing is for certain, the goal of the aircraft designers of today and tomorrow are for faster and higher flying aircraft. There are no limits on how far the designers will want to take the craft, and there are new confirmed designs for engines which will work with new forms of fuel and with energies such as microwaves and magnetism. In this researchers estimation it has long been the goal of designers to create a plane which can take off from a normal runway and get all the way out into space. This is known as single stage to orbit or SSTO for short. In the UK, British Aerospace (BAe) have had a design on the drawing board for a few years for an aircraft known as HOTOL, which is a SSTO aircraft - it would allow travel from Heathrow to Sydney in 1 hour! The only thing which has stopped it production is funding, but this may be on it's way soon.

I think that military have had this technology for some time. They required this ability to get out into space quickly and easily in order to service the many hundreds of satellites that orbit our globe. It has also been rumoured that the US already have orbiting space stations in place, exactly the same as the Russians have. When President Bush announced a return to space and projects which would put a permanently manned space station into orbit, he may have been economic with the truth and should have said that his plan was for a public space station, and that the military already had theirs. Certainly this move back into space with a secret developed SSTO aircraft would explain a lot that has gone on with the scaling down of the Space Shuttle program - for many years now funding has been reduced to NASA, and this may be because the military already have their own ability to get into space.

Such a super secret space project may be being developed in an area of Australia known as Pine Gap. This huge facility is joint run by British, Australian and US military and is rumoured to be a space launch centre. Nobody knows for certain what goes on there, but whatever it is it has been going on in perfect secrecy for the last 20 years! Strange also that the security perimeter for Pine Gap is 1000 square miles. What could our joint forces want to be doing together under the official guise of a space centre out in the middle of Australia. It certainly asks a few questions, but unfortunately I don't have the answers. What I will speculate though that Aurora is infact a SSTO aircraft and is being flown to service such space stations and maintain satellites. Time will tell if there is to be a disclosure of this project in a few years time.

"Mystery contact may be Aurora"

by: Bill Sweetman

Mounting evidence suggests that the US Government has secretly developed deployed a hypersonic reconnaissance aircraft, probably as a replacement the SR-71.

A Royal Air Force air traffic controller tracked a target leaving the RAF base at Machrihanish, Scotland at an estimated speed of Mach 3 last November, according to 'The Scotsman' newspaper last week. Another witness heard an extremely loud jet noise near the base around the same time. In the USA, highly supersonic aircraft believed to be operating from North Scotland, have been detected and tracked by seismological sensors installed by the Geological Service (USGS). The booms were first recorded in June last year.

Machrihanish in one of the most remote bases in Europe, located near the tip of the Kintyre peninsula in Western Scotland. Recent base modernisation rumoured association with the F-117 Stealth Fighter lend credence to the reports.

Meanwhile, the California booms are the first substantial corroborated evidence of unidentified supersonic aircraft operating over the USA. On at least four occasions, sonic booms have registered on some of the sensors across Southern California, from the Los Angeles basin to the East edge of the Mojave desert, according to Jim Mori, a USGS seismologist at California Institute of Technology. The incidents were recorded in June October, November, and late January. The seismologists estimate that the targets were flying at speeds between Mach 3 and Mach 4.

So far all the tracks have been headed north and east over the Los Angeles basin, pointing directly to southern Nevada, 500 km away. Most secret US Air Force activities, including the large flight test base at Groom Lake, are within the Nellis range in Nevada. Since the range is only 8 min from Los Angeles at such speeds, the targets were presumably decelerating as they crossed the coast.

The USGS first noticed that its seismographs could detect sonic booms they registered space shuttle landings at Edwards AFB, California. Mori says the wave-forms detected in the latest incidents are character of a smaller vehicle than the 37 m long shuttle orbiter. Neither the shuttle nor the single SR-71B - which NASA maintains in flight status - were in operation on the days the booms were detected.

Reports that USAF is developing hypersonic aircraft in undisclosed 'black programmes date back to the mid-1980s. In early 1988, the New York Times reported that a Mach 6 stealthy reconnaissance aircraft called Aurora was developed to replace the SR-71, which was retired in early 1990. More recently witnesses in Nevada and California have reported hearing extremely loud or 'pulsing' noises caused by unidentified aircraft.

Model: Or is this what the Aurora will turn out to look like?

HIDDEN TRUTHS

This article was prompted by a report sent into B.E.A.M.S. (The British, Earth & Aerial Mysteries Society), by fellow seeker-of-the-truth David Coleman, founder of Lothian Unexplained Phenomena Research. The information relayed to me by David has coincided with a long-running investigation that I have been conducting into Geo.-magnetic field energies and ancient site mysteries.

The weight of David's information is, you could say "what caused this particular donkey to buckaroo". Enough was enough - this data just had to be published forthwith, albeit in an abridged form ...

The focus of attention spotlights firstly, on an ancient sacred ceremonial ground and burial cairn deep in the Bathgate Hills, Scotland.

DISFIGURED

Saturated in legend - this previously treasured place has, over the past couple of decades, seen a decline in its popularity as a tourist attraction. Now disfigured by a huge, satellite dish-smothered telecommunications mast and control buildings (just 500 yards away), "Cairnpapple", as the locals of Bathgate and Linlithgow know it, is just one example out of many hundreds that I could mention, of a rather disturbing ancient/hi-tech siting partnership trend that I wish to spotlight. (Here I am referring to solitary, lonely sites, 'they' certainly wouldn't set tongues-a-wagging by operating too close to world famous heritage sites such as Stonehenge or Avebury!).

The megalithic memorial itself dates back some 4,500 years, and as a place of historical importance, it's archaeological history is well chronicled. Cairnpapple has been called a "Scottish Stonehenge" by some, and is obviously a valuable site, so why was this environmental vandalism allowed to take place - and anyway, if this elevated spot was of such vital importance for the siting of this particular aerial system, then why so close to the cairn - some 500 yards away. I ask you!

Now, "unscientific" or not, we must begin to explore matters in the paranormal realm, for every which-way one turns in these parts, tales of the weird and wonderful cannot be escaped. Apart from it's cairn, and unsightly modern bedfellow, this ground is also "special" for another reason. Numerous researchers, along with our friend David Coleman, have pinpointed healthy Geo.-

magnetic energy flows through this area by dowsing (see "Cairnpapple Area Leys" details).

Although fundamentally not uncommon, these Invisible, "telluric" (of the earth) streams are curiously marked solely by lines of ancient structures, such as Cairnpapple and some latter-day religious constructions as well (many "modern" places of worship were built over pagan sites). These alignments are said to criss-cross the world in near-perfect straits.

This fact alone raises the question: How did early man, without any sophisticated monitoring equipment such as magnetometers, know about these imperceptible forces? Could ancient man in fact Dowse?

Some say that our ancestors not only knew about these natural flows of energy, now termed "Ley Lines", but that they utilised these Geo.-grid emissions in some

By
Kenneth John Parsons

way. (Aside from these Geo.-magnetic anomalies, it has also been discovered that our planet has its own natural radio frequency! "Space Station Earth" can be found between 1kHz and 10kHz using VLF equipment.)

DEFIES LOGICAL EXPLANATION

I wonder if either, or both of these anomalies could be the TRUE reason why so many listening and transmission bases are now being located in close proximity to remotely- placed, former pagan sites of worship? Our Scottish example alone defies logical explanation, because just one look at an Ordinance Survey map will inform the reader that there were many other more suitable high-points on which to erect the offending transmission tower, rather than smack-bang right next to a significant archaeological site as this.

But that, by no means is all. I mentioned the paranormal a while back; Well, things from this point become just about as exotic as they could get. The events which follow are confined to within a six-mile radius of Cairnpapple. Amongst the strange developments which have transpired recently is a close encounter in the Bathgate Hills region, by David and his wife, with a 6ft tall, "humanoid" or "silver being".

David tells it in his own words, and if anything (from what I have learnt regarding this case), underplays the situation, rather jungle feline-like creature seen roaming these parts, plus some pretty spectacular UFO observations, including:

"Blazing white, orange and green lights in the sky which pulsate and hover at different levels; The classic flying saucer sometimes made up of two saucers joined at the rim; Triangular-shaped objects moving in the sky surrounded by bright white lights". The area of Bonnybridge, which also comes within our radius of investigation, has been called "the world's UFO capital", and at it's peak had some 800 UFO reports in the space of two years. (See diagram of one example from this category). Incidentally, another point of interest in this enquiry is that witch-covens are, and always have been, operating in these parts, I have been informed.

Recently fresh information has come to light. "When," I asked David jokingly, "was this case ever going to be concluded?"

"Human remains, weird burial rituals and a devilish map reference number", screamed the headlines in the Lothian Courier newspaper back in 1987 (20. 2. 87 to be precise).

Courier reporter Dave Cowan unearths some strange facts on West Lothian's Graves Knowes Cist Cemetery. "A mysterious Dark Ages graveyard, with 100 stone coffins, some containing half-buried skeletons, was found in Livingston, last century; At the devilish map reference point NT 041 666. (this is just a few miles away from the Bathgate hills and Cairnpapple ... and location of the famous "Livingstone Encounter" at Deuchmont Law, some years back, in which forest worker Bob Taylor chanced upon a landed alien "spacecraft" and two "robot like creatures" which tried than resorting to exaggeration:

"At approximately 2200 hrs. I was travelling on the road which runs adjacent to an area known as Knock Forest. As I approached a dangerous bend in the road, my attention was drawn to my right by a sudden burst of movement. What had caught my eye was a running figure of a humanoid shape. The figure appeared to be moving at such a speed that I was left with only a frozen image, as if suspended in my minds eye. It was approximately 6 feet tall, and appeared extremely unhappy that we had disturbed it.

It's appearance was that of a bright negative against the dark background of the forest. It had a human-like face contorted in a snarl which was directed back at us as it sped effortlessly through the trees. The estimated speed of the figure was between 50 and 70 mph. The encounter only lasted a few seconds, but has left an indelible image with me that I find difficult to erase. I would be interested in hearing from anyone who has had a similar encounter involving great speed and the appearance of humanoid negative types. Signed D.Coleman".

FELINE-LIKE CREATURE

Since this statement was written, David has indeed met with another couple who have had a comparable experience in this same area. David also discovered legends concerning a large, jet-black,

"to force him into said craft" ... (yes, I know that the world of unidentified flying objects draws its share of cranks, egotists and charlatans, but I am confident, judging by all that I have seen and read about this case, that Mr Taylor did not fit into any of these classifications. His was a genuine brush with something that mere textbook science is unable to account for).

The site now shows no sign of what was found there between the early 18th century and around 1844. Indeed none of West Lothian's history books even mention the ancient graveyard. But when Lothian Region submitted plans for the building of a technical college on Adam Brae, Almondvale West, the truth came to light.

STONE COFFINS

The Livingston Development Corporation decided to check that the building work would not destroy anything of archaeological interest. It was the Organisation they consulted, the Scottish Urban Archaeological trust, that brought Graves Knowes and its secrets to public notice for the first time since the late 1890's. The Trust found that back then, surveyors for the National Monuments Record of Scotland were told that cists or stone coffins were found in four small hillocks comprising Adams Brae.

However, locals maintained they were actually found on a flat piece of ground on the site. Given that information, the Trust suspect that Adam Brae could be an extension of Graves Knowes.

Although much of this plot dates back to Bronze Age, it is written that many of the coffins dated from the 5th century, and were mainly empty, but the contents of some have given rise to another mystery. Whoever exhumed the graves at the time noted that: "The remains were evidently those of people of greater size than today", some 7ft tall, (discovered with their legs broken and bent backwards). The skeletons had been partially burnt from the abdomen downwards, and many had their skulls smashed in.

Leys, ancient lines markers, possible superior beings, strange apparitions and UFO's... what is the link? All of the evidence suggests that there is available, a detectable, usable, but little talked about earth energy flux. This is a power that our ancestors may have once cherished, nourished and utilised, a sacred art which appears, on the face of it, to have been lost ... or has it?

Many researchers involved in the study of dowsing, earth magic and the world's Geo./electromagnetic grid system, are now of the belief that the secrets of this ancient science have not been completely lost, as one might be inclined to imagine, but rather, handed down to selected individuals.

This would have been occurring throughout the ages, Keys, known only to a limited number of students in clandestine societies, passed orally, or by mathematical codes and ciphers, to successive generations of initiates. According to this idea, the metrology of the mounds and circles, along with the geomancy of the positioning of antediluvian power centres,- and their interrelation to one another, (expressed by a harmony of numbers, along with the harmonic values of all elements; Studies in light, colour and sound and geometric formulae only fully understood by the "Illuminated Ones") contains the hidden secret to the basic operations of the universe.

But far from only being embodied in the British works of Megalithic man, this sacred instruction can be found enshrined in the measurements of major ancient building constructions world-wide, (such as the Great Pyramids of China & Egypt) - Coming forward in time., this learning was further expressed in the Masonic geometry of many abbeys, churches and cathedrals.

Although it is not an easily discoverable fact,...even "today", this sacrosanct wisdom, and higher learning is being employed in important mathematics, is still used in contemporary architecture; From the US president's offices - The White House to St Paul's Cathedral ...

Harking back to this ancient/hi-tech site-sharing phenomenon mentioned earlier, could it possibly be that the powers presently in control of the nations communications and defences have rediscovered, re-learned these ancient secrets and are building their sites accordingly? And if this is correct, then why are we being kept in the dark about this higher learning, a knowledge that in effect, should belong to "the people" as opposed to just the top-brass and secret societies of this planet.

Of course, when pressed, the aforementioned "big-boys" will deny all of this, - then they would, wouldn't they? So why have I bothered to write this article at all? Well, I guess that I was naive enough at the opening to believe that truth would be the victor. I held this crazy notion that when all of the lies and double-talk had been spoken, and inevitable character assassination completed, these startling facts would remain to speak for themselves... Of course like many who have trodden the same path, I would be deluding myself if I were to think for a moment that just one bucket of clean water poured into an ocean of impurities is going to make any difference... It is an uphill battle. But still we must try.

ANXIOUS

In reality, us work-weary and debt-laden "ordinary" folk are faced with a "no-win" situation. Those who hold the key know that generally, although we are anxious for explanations,..-,The public does not have the time or resources to pursue these matters properly. Basically we are supposed to do as we are told, and believe what we are taught. We say: "Life is too short" to argue, and so we go, sheep-like "with the flow".

And if we do stumble upon some hidden truths, as seems to be the case with this enquiry, such knowledge is worse than useless without any admissions from the ace-holding authorities concerned.

Countered by a stony wall of silence, shifty looks, and numerous dead-brain excuses, the type of alternative research detailed in this paper is automatically relegated to being viewed as just another one of those damn cranky conspiracy theories. And, although many top-name researchers are well aware of what I been talking about, they will not risk losing there credibility by publicly speaking on such a deep argument. Think about it for a moment. Have you ever heard a top-selling UFO investigator seriously discuss the earth mysteries subject openly?

Nine times-out-of-ten you see them, po-faced as always, with that "sold out" look in, their eyes, on television (usually plugging their latest book) fostering belief in E.T. visitation, "giving em what they want to hear".

With the odd exception, these people always steer well clear of anything to do with Ley lines and such esotericism. (unless it is to say something derisory of course) I wonder why?

CAIRNPAPPLE AREA LEYS

The area is bounded on the North by the Forth estuary; on the SE by the River Almond and the Pentlands beyond; on the SW side by the high ground of the Cant Hills around Shotts; to the NW the River

Avon. The main prehistoric site is Cairnpapple (Grid Reference NS 988717) and the highest ground is the trig. point (312m) at Knock, (NS 988712).

The site of Cairnpapple gives extensive views across the central belt. The main Ley is possibly the line joining Beinn Ime (NN 255085), Ben Lomond (NN 367029) and Scald Law (NT 192611) which is the highest point of the Pentlands. Beinn Ime is 51 miles (15 Scottish leagues or 45 Scottish miles) from Cairnpapple.

This line passes through Cairnpapple bearing 297/117° grid and includes the following intermediate points to the NW on O.S. map sheet 65 (Falkirk): Bonnybridge (church at canal bridge in square 8280 with the trig point 200m off the line)

Knolls (hillcocks) at 858784, 866780, 880773, Blackbraes 912756, Blackbrige spot height 193m 924750. Torphichen (minor cross-roads 968727) Knoll 974724 and Cairnpapple

To the S.E., there are two lines of interest. The Scald Law line continues through the other tip of Lochan 991715 to Livingstone (Ladywell) to Mid Calder, Lawheads, House-o-Muir, Wester Bravelaw, side of Hare Hill and Scald Law.

An alternative line aligns Dechmont Law and Black hill, passing through East Calder.

Local to Cairnpapple there is an alignment of Forts for a distance of 3 Scotmiles (1 league):
Fort 9774 - Cockleroy 9874 - Fort 0374.

A line of the same length joins fort 0374 to knoll 987709. This knoll is also 4 leagues from fort 8285 on a line through Torphichen Preceptory.

Knoll 987709 also lies 2 leagues from the river mouth of the Avon at Grangemouth, on a line through fort 9774, crossing the Avon close to the Nunnery (9776). Woodcockdale (9776) represents an intersection with the Duncolm true East line, which goes through trig. point 185m (square 8276) and fort 1575. Duncolm is an important site connecting Ben Lomond and the Glasgow area.

Another line of interest connects Cairnpapple through Binny Craig (0473) and Cramond Island (1978) to North Berwick, Law.

The Washington Pyramid

By Matthew Williams

the Whitehouse, and that the political system was founded on and run by Masons. It's just their nice way of saying "screw you, ignorant people" really! Now this is what most, if not all people miss; The pyramid left standing below the eye now becomes a trapezoid, which is symbol of ultimate evil as used by the satanic cults (which connect to 33rd degree and higher Freemasonry!).

Other points to look for in the Washington design is that the city limits are bounded by a square - another Freemasonic symbol. The Dollar shows an eagle which has 32 feathers on one wing and 33 on the other. This signifies 32 degree and 33 degree Freemasonry - 33rd degree being the floating pyramid leap to all knowing illumination. Above the eagle floats the Seal of Solomon, or Star of David. This Masonic symbol can also be found on the British twenty pound note!

The influence of Freemasonry is strong all over the world. To it's initiates there are facts and secrets which are supposed to be known only to them. Thanks to astute researchers and leaks from lodge members certain facts have come to light. The conspiracies will be discussed in future issues of Truthseekers magazine.

One obvious cover-up has been the involvement of Freemasons in the creation of artificial tension in America which led to the civil wars and declaration of independence. To quote David Icke from his book, ...and the truth shall set you free, "...historian Mannly P Hall, says that of the fifty so men who signed the Declaration of Independence, nearly fifty were known to be Freemasons". This influence goes almost unnoticed until you can spot the clues that Masons have left behind, such as the design of Washinton DC for example.

The symbol of an inverted triangle or pyramid can be seen in the dead central position of Washington DC. The walkways and chambers of a real pyramid are represented also in the street-plan. Street names are connected to famous Freemasons. The pyramid is also symbolised in the Dollar note, which shows the "Great Seal" which is an obvious Freemasonic statement. The use of the pyramid in the Dollar is to signify the power and strength of the class pyramid system, but that rule and oversight is made by "the all seeing eye" - which is removed from the top of the pyramid and floats above. The significance of the removal of the top part of the pyramid is that there are people who are above all others in power and knowledge. These people are termed as being "illuminated" (given occult knowledge) and see themselves as all powerful and separate from us.

So to is the pyramid in the street plan of Washington floating. Interesting also that in Lafayette park there is a flowerbed which has an interesting arrangement; It can be seen from the air to be "the all seeing eye". Lafayette, who the park was named after, was a prominent Freemasonic General (pictured top middle). Above the tip of the floating pyramid can be seen the Whitehouse, so to signify that all roads and power of the freemasons go towards

The Washington monument was also a Freemasonic symbol and if properly completed would have included a masonic temple underneath. The Pentagon building was designed by Freemasons to conform to a pentagram which is another occult symbol.

All in all, you could say that the statement which is made evident by the actions of the Freemasons is that they are in control. With over 1 million members in the UK (1 in 20 males are Freemasons) and with many more in the U.S. you can see how the world has been duped! What occult plans they are working to is anybody's guess. Food for thought.

THE KRILL FILES

THE KRILL ARCHIVES
CONFIDENTIAL
A SITUATION REPORT ON OUR ACQUISITION OF ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY AND
INTERACTION WITH ALIEN CULTURES
JANUARY 1988
BY
O.H. KRILL (Real Name Unknown)
ABSTRACT

Throughout the forty year period when UFO have been actively observed in our civilisation, a lot of data has been gathered - data which has often pointed to aspects of the phenomena that have been suppressed. As a result of the suppression and compartmentalisation of the information, our culture has been fragmented into several levels of "reality" which both co-exist and oppose each other. Part of our culture does not or will not believe in the existence of other species; part of our culture acknowledges their existence or the probability of their existence; part of our culture is actually interacting with the other species. These simultaneous realities contribute to the condition of extreme confusion in which we find ourselves.

Research into UFO's follows a similar pattern. Some view the matter in a completely empirical perspective; others search for patterns and functional relationships in events; still others go out and ask the right questions at the right time and get answers. Some of those answers that have appeared are, to some people, quite disturbing and fantastic.

All in all, we are dealing with new concepts in physics, new concepts in psychology, and the gradually growing awareness that we are not only not alone here, but we have never been alone here. As if that were not enough, it turns out that factions of our society have known this, and apparently have been interacting with some of these alien species for quite a while.

The bottom line is that all along, humanity has been led down a false path, a path that has been plagued by layer upon layer of conspiracies and disinformation. Technological knowledge and absolute power have been the motives on the human side. Survival has been the motive on the alien side, or at least as far as the predominant alien visitors are concerned.

The intent of this paper is to bring much of the details regarding this into the open. You are not being asked to believe it, but to consider it in the light of what has happened, what is happening, and what may be developing right under our very noses. If you find that you cannot stomach such thoughts, or that you cannot deal with it, read no further.

It is quite evident, or it should be, that the UFO situation is both complex and dangerous. The UFO problem is a multi-situational and multi-dimensional phenomena. We have established the following as having a basis in fact:

- Craft from other worlds have crashed on Earth.
- Alien craft are from both ultra-dimensional sources and sources within this dimension.

- Early U.S. government efforts at acquiring alien technology were successful.
- The U.S. government has had live alien hostages at some point in time.
- The government has conducted autopsies on alien cadavers.
- U.S. intelligence agencies, security agencies, and public agencies are involved in the cover-up of facts pertaining to the situation.
- People have been and are currently abducted, mutilated, murdered and kidnapped as a result of the UFO situation.
- There is a current active alien presence on this planet among us that controls difference elements of our society.
- Alien forces maintain bases on Earth and on the Moon.
- The U.S. government has had a working relationship with alien forces for some time, with the express purpose of gaining technology in gravitational propulsion, beam weaponry and mind control.
- Millions of cattle have been killed in the process of acquiring biological materials.

- Both aliens and the U.S. government are responsible for mutilations, but for different reasons.
- We live in a multi-dimensional world that is overlapped and visited by entities from other dimensions. Many of these entities are hostile. Many are not hostile.
- The basis of our genetic development and religions lies in intervention by non-terrestrial and terrestrial forces.
- Actual technology far exceeds that perceived by the public.
- The United States space program is a cover operation that exists for public relations purposes.
- People are being actively killed in order to suppress the facts about the situation. The CIA and the NSA are involved so deeply that exposure would cause collapse of their overt structure.
- Facts indicate alien overt presence within five to ten years.
- Our civilisation is one of many that have existed in the last billion years.

ANIMAL MUTILATIONS AND UFOS

General Chronology

In the middle of 1963, a series of livestock attacks occurred in Haskell County, Texas. In a typical case, an Angus bull was found with its throat slashed and a saucer-sized wound in its stomach. The citizenry attributed the attacks to a wild beast of some sort, a "vanishing varmint." As it continued its furtive forays through the Haskell County outback, the bloodluster assumed somewhat more mythic proportions and a new name was destined to endure: The Haskell Rascal.

Throughout the following decade, there would be sporadic reports of similar attacks on livestock. These attacks were occasionally described as "mutilations." The most prominent of these infrequent reports was the mutilation death of "Snippy" the horse in southern Colorado in 1967, accompanied by area UFO sightings, a Condon Committee investigation and world-wide press coverage.

It was in 1973 that the modern animal mutilation wave can be said to have begun in earnest. That year is generally thought of as the year of the last concerted UFO flap, although there may be reason to question that contention, given the events of two years later.

In 1973 and 1974 the majority of the classic mutilation reports originated in the central United States.

In 1975, an unprecedented onslaught spread across the western two-thirds of the United States. Mutilation reports peaked in that year, accompanied by accounts of UFOs and unidentified helicopters. In 1978, the attacks increased.

By 1979, numerous livestock mutilations were occurring in Canada, primarily in Alberta and Saskatchewan. Attacks in the United States levelled off. In 1980, there was an increase in activity in the United States. Mutilations have been reported less frequently since that year, though this may be due in part to an increased reluctance to report mutilations on the part of ranchers and farmers. The mutilations still continue. Over ten thousand animals have died in the United States; although the mutilations have been occurring world-wide, the same circumstances are always present.

General Observations

Any investigation which intends to probe the systematic occurrence of the mutilation attacks upon livestock and other animals must include within its purview certain factors which may or may not be directly related to the acts of mutilation themselves. These mutilations - the killing and furtive removal of external or internal parts - have been directed at literally thousands of animals (primarily livestock) since the 1960s. The surgery on these animals is primarily conducted with uncanny precision, suggesting the use of highly sophisticated implements and techniques. The numbing and persistent regularity of the mutilations and the seemingly casual disposal of the useless carcasses all hint at extreme confidence - even arrogance - of the mutilators. It is an arrogance which appears to be justified by the freedom and impunity with which these acts have been carried out.

The pertinence of a specific element of the problem is shortly revealed in the course of any thorough investigation into the mutilations. I refer to the appearance of unmarked and otherwise unidentified helicopters within a spatial and temporal proximity of animal mutilation sites. The occurrence of the two has been persistent enough to supersede coincidence.

These mystery helicopters are almost always without identifying markings, or markings may appear to have been painted over or covered with something. The helicopters are frequently reported flying at abnormal, unsafe or illegal altitudes. They may shy away if witnesses of law officers try to approach.

There are several accounts of aggressive behaviour on the part of the helicopter occupants, with witnesses chased, "buzzed," hovered over or even fired upon. At times these choppers appear very near mutilation sites, even hovering over a pasture where a mutilated carcass is later found. They may be observed shortly before or after mutilations occur - or within days of a mutilation. The intention here is merely to stress that the "mystery helicopter" element is a part of the issue which deserves scrutiny.

The idea of "mystery helicopters" did not develop concurrently with the animal mutilations themselves. Such helicopters - unmarked, flying at low levels, soundless (or sounding like helicopters) - have been reported for years, and have been linked to an even more widespread phenomenon - the "phantom" (fixed wing) aircraft. The helicopters themselves have been seen in area where UFOs were reported, in many countries. In some of the more interesting accounts, the mystery helicopters were seen with UFOs, or shortly after the UFOs were sighted.

The most apt case I can think of, but certainly not the most isolated, is a case described by Virgil Armstrong in his lecture on "What NASA Didn't Tell Us About the Moon." He discusses helicopters and UFOs in general. Armstrong describes a friend of his that had invented a special camera arrangement with the idea that it would increase the chances of getting good pictures of UFOs. The camera was mounted on a gunstock along with a laser. The idea was to fire the laser at the UFO, if one appeared, and hopefully the UFO would come to a halt, enabling him to take some quality pictures.

Not too long after they were set up in the desert, a UFO did in fact appear, and they fired the laser and the disk stopped in a hovering mode. They took quite a few good pictures of it. Shortly thereafter, the disk flew away. Within minutes, they heard the unmistakable sound of helicopters coming their way. The helicopters landed strategically around their group, and out of the choppers came a croup of Black Berets, which are strategic Air Force security forces. The commander of the Berets walked up to the group and said, "What are you doing here?" "Obviously, we are photographing flying objects, and we just saw a flying saucer and we got some very good pictures of it." The commander then asked the leader of the group if he knew where he was. The group leader replied "No." The commander then said, "We suggest you get out of here right now!" The group leader then asked, "What right do you have to tell us to get out of here? Is this government land?" The commander of the Black Berets replied, "Indeed it is. It is Andrews Air Force Base, and if you are not out of here in ten minutes, you are under arrest." With that, the Berets removed the film from the camera, and the group left.

Not only does this illustrate one kind of instance where UFOs are seen in relationship to helicopters, but it also illustrates the fact that either some of the disks are ours, or we have a military/government relationship with those who fly them. The helicopters mentioned above are not the mystery ones, but were United States military ones.

Another case of military helicopters and United States-owned disks comes from the book "UFO Crash at Aztec," by Wendell Stevens. In the book he relates the incident where an Indian was backpacking in the mountains in the vicinity of Area 51, Groom Lake, on the Nellis AFB range north of Las Vegas. He heard approaching helicopters and hid out of sight. The helicopters were broadcasting a warning over public address systems for anyone in the area to show themselves because they were going to conduct a "dangerous military test." The Indian maintained his hidden posture, and the helicopters flew overhead and back down toward the Groom Lake facility. Minutes later, two helicopters were seen flying up the canyon with a black disk flying between them and slightly above them. They flew overhead and then the helicopters turned around and flew back towards the base, followed shortly afterward by the disk. The individual's name and how to contact him for further details is given in the book.

The Mystery Choppers

Situations involving the mystery helicopters appear to be a little more insidious. A good example is an event which occurred in Madison County, Montana, between June and October of 1976. Twenty-two confirmed cattle mutilations had occurred during that period, and they were accompanied by reports throughout the county of silent, unmarked, jet-black helicopters, flashing or steady anomalous lights in the air and near the ground, unmarked fixed-wing aircraft and white vans in remote and previously inaccessible areas.

Toward the latter part of this period, in early autumn of 1976, a hunter from Bozeman, Montana, was out alone around 3:00pm one day in the Red Mountain area near Norris. He watched as a black helicopter without markings flew overhead and disappeared below a small hill. The curious hunter climbed to the top of the hill. There was the black chopper (a Bell Jet Ranger, he thought) on the ground, the engine still running. Seven men had apparently exited from the craft and were walking up the hill toward the observer. As the hunter advanced toward the seven, he waved and shouted congenial greetings. It was then that he realised there was something about the men—they were all Oriental. They had slanted eyes and olive skin and were jabbering among themselves in some indecipherable language. They wore "everyday" clothes, not uniforms. Suddenly they began to return to the helicopter. The hunter, still waving and shouting friendly greetings, started after them. The Orientals quickened their pace. When the hunter approached within five or six feet, they broke into a dead run, crowded into the chopper and took off.

In a documented "mystery helicopter" wave in England, accounts place Oriental-appearing occupants in an unidentified chopper. Slant-eyed, olive skinned, Oriental-seeming occupants have been a staple at the heart and at the periphery of UFO accounts for years. Significant numbers of the infamous "men-in-black" (MIB) have a similar appearance, but very often they are seen as very pale and gaunt men who are sensitive to light.

In STIGMATA No. 5 (Fall-Winter 1978) Tom Adams outlined the most prominent speculative explanations accounting for the mutilation/helicopter link, including the following:

- The helicopters are themselves UFOs, disguised to appear as terrestrial craft.
- The choppers originate from within the U.S. government/military and are directly involved in conducting the actual mutilations.
- The helicopters are government/military and are not involved in the mutilations but are investigating them.
- The helicopters are government/military, and they know about the identity and motives of the mutilators and by their presence, they are trying to divert attention to the possibility of involvement by the military.

The answer, as far as Tom Adams is concerned, could be a combination of the above explanations. There also has been speculation that they are involved in biological experiments with chemical or biological warfare or the geobotanical pursuit of petroleum and mineral deposits. On one occasion, an army standard-type scalpel was found at a mutilation site. Since the disks have been mostly involved with the mutilations, it is thought that this was a diversionary event.

These events, or the discussion of them, is just the precursor to the actual revelations of what is behind the mutilations: alien acquisition of biological materials for their own use. To discuss this in a logical and sequential manner, we must review what has been really happening right under our noses: direct interaction with extraterrestrial biological entities (EBE's). To discuss that, however, we must attempt to start at the beginning with what we now know to be true.

The Saga Begins

It seemingly all began thousands of years ago, but for the purposes of this discussion, let's start with some events that we all are familiar with. In 1947, two years after we set off the first nuclear explosion that our current civilisation detonated, came the Mantell episode, where we had the first recorded incident of a military confrontation with extraterrestrials that resulted in the death of a military pilot. It is quite evident now that our government did not know quite how to handle the situation. In 1952, the nation's capital was overflown by a series of disks. It was this event which led to the involvement of United States security forces (CIA, NSA, DIA, FBI) to try to keep the situation under control until they could understand what was happening. During this period, the government established a working group, known as Majestic Twelve

(MJ-12). The original members were:

Admiral Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, Dr. Vannevar Bush, Secretary James Forrestal, General Nathan P. Twining, General Hoyt S. Vandenburg, Dr. Detlev Bronk, Dr. Jerome Hunsaker, Mr. Sidney W. Souers, Mr. Gordon Gray, Dr. Donald Menzel, General Robert M. Montague, and Dr. Lloyd V. Berkner.

The MJ-12 group has been a continuously existing group since it was created, with new members replacing others that die. For example, when Secretary Forrestal was upset at seeing the United States sold out in World War II, he wound up being sent to a Naval hospital for emotional strain. Before relatives could get to him, he "jumped out a 16th story window." Most persons close to him consider his suicide contrived. When Forrestal died, he was replaced by General Walter B. Smith.

In December of 1947, Project Sign was created to acquire as much information as possible about UFOs, their performance characteristics and their purposes. In order to preserve security, liaison between Project Sign and MJ-12 was limited to two individuals within the intelligence division of the Air Materiel Command whose role it was to pass along certain types of information through channels. Project Sign evolved into Project Grudge in December, 1948. Project Grudge had an over civilian counterpart named Project Bluebook, with which we are all familiar. Only "safe" reports were passed to Bluebook. In 1949, MJ-12 evolved an initial plan of contingency called MJ-1949-04P/78 that was to make allowance for public disclosure of some data should the necessity present itself.

Majestic Twelve was originally organised by General George C. Marshall in July, 1947, to study the Roswell-Magdalena UFO crash recovery and debris. Admiral Hillenkoetter, director of the CIA from May 1, 1947, until September, 1950, decided to activate the "Robertson Panel," which was designed to monitor civilian UFO study groups that were appearing all over the country. He also joined NICAP in 1956 and was chosen as a member of its board of directors. It was from this position that he was able to act as the MJ-12 "mole," along with his team of other covert experts. They were able to steer NICAP in any direction they wanted to go. With the "Flying Saucer Program" under complete control of MJ-12 and with the physical evidence hidden away, General Marshall felt more at ease with this very bizarre situation. These men and their successors have most successfully kept most of the public fooled for 39 years, including much of the western world, by setting up false experts and throwing their influence behind them to make their plan work, with considerable success. Until now.

Within six months of the Roswell crash on 2 July 1947 and the finding of another crashed UFO at San Augustine Flats near Magdalena, New Mexico, on 3 July 1947, a great deal of reorganisation of agencies and shuffling of people took place. The main thrust behind the original "security lid," and the very reason for its construction, was the analysis and attempted duplication of the technologies of the disks. That activity is headed up by the following groups:

- The Research and Development Board (R&DB)
- Air Force Research and Development (AFRD)
- The Office of Naval Research (ONR)

- CIA Office of Scientific Intelligence (CIA-OSI)
- NSA Office Of Scientific Intelligence (NSA-OSI)

No single one of these groups was supposed to know the whole story. Each group was to know only the parts that MJ-12 allowed them to know. MJ-12 also operates through the various civilian intelligence and investigative groups. The CIA and the FBI are manipulated by MJ-12 to carry out their purposes. The NSA was created in the first place to protect the secret of the recovered flying disks, and eventually got complete control over all communications intelligence.

This control allows the NSA to monitor any individual through mail, telephone, telexes, telegrams, and now through online computers, monitoring private and personal communications as they choose. In fact, the present-day NSA is the current main extension of MJ-12 pertaining to the "Flying Saucer Program." Vast amounts of disinformation are spread throughout the UFO research field. Any witnesses to any aspect of the program have their lives monitored in every detail, for each has signed a security oath. For people who have worked in the program, including military members, breaking that oath could have any on of the following direct consequences:

- A verbal warning accompanied by a review of the security oath.
- A stronger warning, sometimes accompanied by a brow-beating and intimidation.
- Psychologically working on an individual to bring on depression that will lead to suicide.
- Murder of the person made to appear as a suicide or accident.
- Strange and sudden accidents, always fatal.
- Confinement in special "detention centres."
- Confinement in "insane asylums" where they are "treated" by mind-control and deprogramming techniques. Individuals are released with changed personalities, identities, and altered memories.
- Bringing the individual into the "inside," where he is employed and works for "them," and where he can be watched. This is usually in closed facilities with little contact with the outside world. Underground facilities are the usual place for this.

Any individual who they perceive to be "too close to the truth" will be treated in the same manner. MJ-12 will go to any length to preserve and protect the ultimate secret. As we will see later, the characteristics of what this ultimate secret would turn out to be would change drastically, for it was something even MJ-12 could not predict - actual contact with alien groups.

How the actual contact between the government and aliens was initially made is not known, but the government was made aware that it could be done by a civilian using the right equipment. Dr. Paul Bennewitz, civilian scientist, did so using computer equipment and informed the government he had done so, not realising that by then, in 1983, that the government was in truth as deep into dealing with the aliens as his communications with them revealed. Dr. Bennewitz lives next to Manzano Weapons Storage Area in Albuquerque, New Mexico. He observed UFOs constantly over the area and initially decided that they were a threat to the installation. He proceeded to figure out a coding system and attempted and was successful in communicating with the aliens that were flying over that area. What he found out is that after initial contacts with the aliens years ago, we agreed to provide them with bases underground in the United States in return for certain technological secrets which the aliens would reveal to us. The aliens would also be allowed to carry out certain operations, abductions, and mutilations without intervention.

The original contact between the government and the extraterrestrial biological entities, who are grey in colour and about 3.5 to 4.5 feet high (hereafter referred to as the Greys), was achieved between 1947 and 1951. We knew that the Greys were instrumental in performing the mutilations of animals (and some humans) and that they were using the glandular substances derived from these materials for food (absorbed through the skin) and to clone more Greys in their underground laboratories. The government was also aware that the Greys performed some of the abductions to secure genetic materials. The government insisted that the Greys provide them with a list that would be presented to the National Security Council.

Through all this, the government thought that the Greys were basically tolerable creatures, although a bit distasteful. They presumed at the time that it was not unreasonable to assume that the public would and could get used to their presence. Between 1968 and 1969 a plan was formulated to make the public aware of their existence over the succeeding twenty years. This time period would culminate with a series of documentaries that would explain the history and intentions of the Greys.

The Greys assured us that the real purpose of the abductions was for monitoring of our civilisation, and when we learned that the abductions were a lot more frequent and insidious than we were led to believe, the government became concerned. Their concern was also based on additional information regarding the purposes for the abductions:

Implant object removed from US abductee in 1992.

- Insertion of a 3mm spherical biological monitoring device through the nasal cavity into the brain of the abductee.
- Implementing subliminal post-hypnotic suggestions that would compel the abductee to perform some specific act at a time to be within the next two to five years.

- Genetic crossbreeding between the Greys and human beings.
- Insertion of discoid monitoring devices into the muscle tissue of the abductees. Presence of these has been verified by x-ray.

By the time we had found out the truth about the intentions of the Greys (they intend to stay here and stay in control of our world) it was too late. We had already "sold out" humanity. Not that it would have made any difference, because they were here doing what they were doing anyway.

In 1983, a story was outlined by government sources that said that the Greys are responsible for our biological evolution through manipulation of the DNA of already evolving primates on this planet. Various time intervals of the DNA manipulation were specified for 25,000, 15,000, 5,000, and 2,500 years ago. Originally, the government thought that the Greys meant us no harm, but today, in 1988, the picture that is emerging is exactly the opposite. The story now is one of great deception at several different levels: the Greys Trojan Horse-style manipulation and lying which allied MJ-12 forces with them four decades ago; the government's disinformation of the subject of UFOs in order to perpetuate the agreement with the Greys free of public scrutiny; the lies to the abductees; the Greys on-going abduction of people and mutilation of animals in order to harvest enzymes, blood and other tissues for their own survival needs; and a genetic blend of the Grey race and a tall Nordic race to enable Grey interface with humans to be done with greater ease.

Information from a source at a Southwest Army base reveals that these multiple levels of deception are true. It is also indicated that the goal of SDI (Star Wars) is actually to follow through with an attack, proposed by the Greys, on the Nordics when they arrive en masse between now and 1992. This time schedule seems to match with the post-hypnotic programming of many abductees for actions between the next two to five years.

This same source sees the world dominated and controlled by the Greys in a way similar to that portrayed in the "V" television series—they are concerned only for their own survival agenda, and this agenda requires biological substances from other life forms on our planet.

The apparent reasoning for the Grey preoccupation with this is due to their lack of a formal digestive tract and the fact that they absorb nutrients and excrete waste directly through the skin. The substances that they acquire are mixed with hydrogen peroxide and "painted" on their skin, allowing absorption of the required nutrients. It is construed from this that some weaponry against them might be geared in this direction.

Observations by a Visiting Nordic

In October, 1987, UFO researcher George Andrews was successfully able to contact one of the Nordics not associated with the Greys, through a woman in California. What follows are the comments made by the alien:

"Were you a culture about to invade, you would not do it with a flourish of ships showing up in the heavens and undergo risk of being fired upon. That's the type of warfare slightly less evolved beings get into. You would create intense confusion and disagreement with only inferences to your presence—inferences which would [in turn] cause controversial disagreement.

"The Greys are insidious little fiends. They did exactly [to us] what they're doing here [to you]. You are not on the verge of an invasion. You are not in the middle of an invasion. The invasion has already taken place. It's merely in its final stages.

"What would you invade? [Here he describes the operational plan of the Greys from the beginning.] You would go to the most secret of communities within a society. In the case of the United States, you would go and infiltrate the CIA. You would take over some of them and you would take over part of the KGB.

"You would create great dissension and disagreement between factions of the public at large—some groups saying they have seen UFOs, others saying 'No, no, this is not possible.' You would involve two major countries in an on-going idiotic philosophical disagreement so that while the Soviet Union and the United States constantly battle back and forth about who has which piece of territory or whether one invades Iran or whether one invades Afghanistan or whatever... whether one dismantles one nuclear warhead or the other dismantles another group of warheads—you would sit back and laugh if you had the capacity to laugh.

"You would present yourself indeed to some in a group who would protect you [CIA or MJ-12] thinking they had a secret more secret and more perfect knowledge of something than anyone else on this planet had, and they would covet you and you would trust their own greed and you would trust their own mass stupidity to trap them. And you'd do it on both sides.

"You'd show yourself to some of the mass populace to further involve [factions of] the government in an attempt to shut them up, to keep them even more busy quieting them and trying to 'stop more information about UFOs from getting out.' You'd have the mass populace to a state where they distrusted the government. 'Oh, why don't they believe us? Why can't they understand that these things are really happening? We're not crazy!'

"So you would have battles constantly about whether UFOs exist or they don't exist. You would have the public and the government at each other's throats. You would set two major superpowers at each other's throats. And you would have set up groups like 'haves'—the wealthy but contented—and the 'have-nots.' You would plant the seeds of massive discontent.

"Eventually you might have some show of ships landing in the 1990s. One or two. By the time they have landed, be assured they will be in complete control. You will start doing crossbreeds and more crossbreeds, generation after generation.

"You bribe the government with a few titbits—a Star Wars system. You tease and tempt the Soviet Union with a laser system far finer than any of their own scientists could think of. And you always have that subtle inference—just on the borderline of consciousness so that UFOs don't seem to be believable, yet you keep it couched in secrecy and make it seem quite so insane that no one would believe them. On top of it, you would unleash forces that would want to kill them [UFO contactees] if they disclosed that the CIA is dealing with the exact same things the [contact victim] is.

"Maybe one or two hundred years from now, some of the Greys will even physically mingle and you may have some creatures walking around who are pretty much hybrids between Greys and your own race. For now, anything that walks around will look much like yourselves. It's simpler. It holds down on mass panic.

"Everyone who has experiences with them [Greys] will be at odds with the government. To add to that, we will go into a complete phased of earthquake after earthquake and upheaval after upheaval.

"The inner core of the CIA is deeply controlled by the Greys. The CIA sees interaction with the Greys as a path to greater scientific achievement.

"One reason you are seeing so many different kinds of UFOs is that other cultures are watching with extreme interest. Scientists from other cultures arrive to watch. The Greys have not only taken over the intelligence agencies, they have also taken over what those agencies call 'lunatic fringe groups.'"

Well, that's what they Nordic had to say. The source of this also makes the following commentary:

"The ultimate evil is that masked form of psychological complacency that leads one to adhere to a group philosophy rather than eke out one's own horizons. As soon as you acquire an awareness of being a so-called 'chosen special group,' you are on the way to a fall. That is the seed of destruction in any society and any culture and it leaves it vulnerable. It will be the eventual undoing of the Greys as well. They see not their error—it is the very weakness they seize upon that is their own inherent weakness. To try and change a Grey, or a cultish type of 'Star Person,' or a CIA member is futile. It will happen, but all in its own good time... it is the spirit that makes anyone stand up and disagree with something that is untrue and incorrect that will be the thorn in the side of the Greys, and the other forces that have allied with them."

During the occupation of the Greys, they have established quite a number of underground bases all over the world, especially in the United States. One such base (among others in the same state) is under Archuleta Mesa, which is about 2.5 miles north-west of Dulce, New Mexico. Details about that base have come across by way of two sources. The first source is by way of an abduction of a woman and her son who witnessed the pickup of a calf for extraction of biological materials.

"In May, 1980, a most interesting case occurred in northern New Mexico. A mother and her son were driving on a rural highway near Cimarron when they observed two craft in the process of abducting a calf. Both of them were then abducted and taken on separate craft to the underground installation, where the woman witnessed the mutilation of the calf. It was alleged that she also observed vats containing cattle body parts floating in a liquid, and another vat containing the body of a male human. The woman was subjected to an exam and it was further alleged that small metallic objects were implanted into her body as well as into her son's body. More than one source has informed us that "catscans" have confirmed the presence of these implants."

The above extract is from a transcript of a conversation between Jim McCampbell and Dr. Paul Bennewitz on July 13, 1984. Bennewitz reports that through regressive hypnosis of the mother and child (required only in about 30% of abduction cases) and his own follow-up investigation (including communications receive via his computer terminal, which are ostensibly from a UFO-related source), he was able to determine the location of the underground facility: a kilometre underground beneath Archuleta Mesa on the Jicarilla Apache Indian Reservation near Dulce, New Mexico (since 1976, one of the area of the U.S. hardest hit by mutilations). Bennewitz' information is that this installation is operated jointly as part of an on-going program of co-operation between the U.S. government and EBES.

There are also underground bases at Kirtland AFB and Holloman AFB, as well as at scores of other bases around the world, including Bentwaters, England. Back to the base under discussion... After Bennewitz briefed Air Force officials on what he had found, a trip to the area revealed the following data:

The base is 2.5 miles north-west of Dulce, and almost overlooks the town. There is a level highway 36 feet wide going into the area. It is a government road. One can see telemetry trailers and buildings that are five-sided with a dome. Next to the domes, a black limousine was noted - a CIA vehicle. These 'limos' will run you off the road if you try to get into the area. To the north there is a launch site. There are two wrecked ships there; they are 36 feet long with wings, and one can see oxygen and hydrogen tanks. The ships that we got out of the trade are atomic-powered with plutonium pellets. Refuelling of the plutonium is accomplished at Los Alamos. The base has been there since 1948.

Some of the disks are piloted by the NSA. The base is 4,000 feet long and helicopters are going in and out of there all the time. When it became known that Bennewitz was familiar with this, the mutilations in the area stopped. In 1979, something happened and the base was temporarily closed. There was an argument over weapons and our people were chased out. The aliens killed 66 of our people, and 44 got away.

One of the people who in fact got away was a CIA agent who, before leaving, made some notes, photos, and videotapes, and went into hiding. He has been in hiding ever since, and every six months he contacts each of five people he left copies of the material with. His instructions were that if he missed four successive contacts, the people could do whatever they want with the material.

This agent calls an individual known to MUFON. Somehow, a description of the "Dulce Papers" was issued, and was received in December, 1987, by many researchers. The "Dulce Papers" were composed of 25 black and white photos, a videotape with no dialogue and a set of papers that included technical information regarding the jointly occupied (U.S.-Alien) facility one kilometre beneath the Archuleta Mesa near Dulce, New Mexico. The facility still exists and is currently operational. It is believed that there are four additional facilities of the same type, one being located a few miles to the south-east of Groom Lake, Nevada. Note - MUFON is the Mutual UFO Network. A very large network of people interested in exactly what you are reading about.

"A general description of what these papers contain is that they contain documents that discuss copper and molybdenum, and papers that discuss magnesium and potassium, but mostly papers about copper. Sheets of paper with charts and strange diagrams. Papers that discuss UV light and gamma rays. These papers tell what the aliens are after and how the blood (taken from cattle) is used. The aliens seem to absorb atoms to eat. They put their hands in blood, sort of like a sponge, for nourishment. It's not just food they want; the DNA in cattle and humans is being altered. The 'Type One' creature is a lab animal. They know how to change the atoms to create a temporary 'almost human being.' It is made with animal tissue and depends on a computer to simulate memory, a memory the computer has withdrawn from another human. Clones. The 'almost human being' is slow and clumsy. Real humans are used for training, to experiment with and to breed with these 'almost humans.' Some humans are kidnapped and used completely. Some are kept in large tubes, and are kept alive in an amber liquid.

"Some humans are brainwashed and used to distort the truth.

"Certain male humans have a high sperm count and are kept alive. Their sperm is used to alter the DNA and create a non-gender being called 'Type Two.' That sperm is grown in some way and altered again, put in wombs. They resemble 'ugly humans' when growing but look normal when fully grown, which only takes a few months from foetus-size.

"They have a short life span, less than a year. Some female humans are used for breeding. Countless women have had a sudden miscarriage after about three months' pregnancy. Some never know they were pregnant, others remember contact some way. The foetus is used to mix the DNA in types one and two. The atomic makeup in that foetus is half human, half 'almost human,' and would not survive in the mother's womb. It is taken at three months and grown elsewhere."

Obviously, this is all rather bizarre from a certain point of view—any point of view, in fact. Nevertheless, material that is supported by years of descriptions and multitudes of corroboration's must mean something, especially when bumped against what is seen to be going on.

It is apparent from this and other data that has been accumulated over the years, that there are underground bases and tunnel complexes all over the world, and that more are being constructed all the time. Many of you may recall the "Shaver" mysteries and inner-earth city stories. Well, all that is true. There are cities down there, amongst other things, and some of them have nothing to do with the main subject of this paper. They've been there for a long time.

Let's change direction for a moment. One individual by the name of Lew Tery has been working on some ideas regarding UFOs and geomagnetic anomalies. I will go into what he has discovered (although the concept of the relationship is not new) and let you judge that for yourself.

After purchasing aeromagnetic and gravitational anomaly maps from the United States Geological Survey, it becomes evident that there was indeed a valid connection between these areas and UFOs. Mr. Tery gave a lecture in Arizona about that relationship, and was subsequently harassed by the FBI, and told that the information is "sensitive." Mr. Tery took the hint and declined to talk publicly about it to the degree that he had been doing.

Both the aeromagnetic and gravitational (Bouguer Gravity) maps indicate basic field strength, as well as areas of high and low field strength. Interestingly enough, the areas of maximum and minimum field strength have the following:

- All have frequent UFO sightings.
- All are either on Indian Reservations, government land, or the government is trying to buy up the land.
- Many of them, especially where several are clustered together, are suspected bases areas and/or areas where mutilations and abductions have historically taken place.

In these observations, Mr. Tery has gone far, but he has gone a little farther in noting that there are times when the UFOs are seen in these areas. Through painstaking research, Mr. Tery found that the sightings, as well as many abductions and mutilations, occur:

- On the new moon or within two days before the new moon.
- On the full moon or within two days before the full moon.
- At the perihelion (moon closest to earth) or within two days before the perihelion.

A glance at the nearest farmers' almanac will give you the information you require as far as the days for this year or any other one. There seems to be no concrete explanation for the coincidence of the times and the events, but it is true.

The Men in Black

All things considered, UFO research has become pretty much of a circus today, and the most intriguing and controversial side-show skirting the edges is the question of the “silencers,” or the mysterious “Men in Black.” There is a strong subliminal appeal in these accounts of visits by mysterious dark-suited figures (I have been visited myself, as have others I’ve known) attempting to silence UFO witnesses. A typical situation would be that a witness has a UFO sighting or UFO-related experience. Shortly thereafter he is visited by one or more “odd”-looking men who relate to him the minutest details of his experience, even though he has as yet told no one for fear of ridicule or other reasons.

The men warn him about spreading the story of his experience around and sometimes even threaten him personally, sometimes obliquely, sometimes directly. Any evidence, if it exists, is confiscated in one way or another. Sometimes the visit is for some totally meaningless reason and the subject of UFOs is hardly mentioned, if at all. But again, the men all seem to look alike.

We actually seem to find ourselves in close proximity to beings who obviously must be directly connected in some way with the objects themselves or the source behind them, yet they seem to be functioning unobtrusively within the framework of our own everyday existence.

The classic conception of an MIB is a man of indefinite age, medium height and dressed completely in black. He always has a black hat and often a black turtleneck sweater. They present an appearance often described as “strange” or “odd.” They speak in a dull monotone voice, “like a computer,” and are dark-complexion with high cheekbones, thin lips, pointed chin, and eyes that are mildly slanted.

The visitors themselves are often on absurd missions. They have reportedly posed as salesmen, telephone repairmen or representatives from official or unofficial organisations. Their mode of transportation is usually large and expensive cars— Buicks or Lincolns, sometimes Cadillacs, all black, of course.

I might note at this point that their physical appearance also has included beings that have pale-greyish skin, and that some of them have been seen to have blond hair, yet they wear the clothing and drive the cars previously described. Their cars often operate with the headlights off, but ghostly purple or greenish glows illuminate the interior. Unusual insignia have been seen emblazoned on the doors and the license plates are always unidentifiable or untraceable.

The fabric of their clothes has been described as strangely “shiny” or thin, but not silky—almost as if they have been cut from a new type of fabric. Their often mechanical behaviour has caused them to be described by some as being like robots or androids (think back to the Dulce lab). A lot of descriptions of some of these “folks” are pretty bizarre. A businessman’s family in Wildwood, New Jersey, was visited by an unusually large man whose pants legs hiked up when he sat down, revealing a green wire grafted onto his skin and running up his leg.

There are other cases of MIB appearing on the other side of a wet, muddy field after a heavy rain, but having no mud whatever on their brightly shined shoes and in the bitter cold, out of nowhere, wearing only a thin coat. Their shoes and wallets all seem new and hardly broken in. They are not alone. They seem to have faceless conspirators in the nation’s post offices and phone companies. Researchers and witnesses often report their mail going astray at an unusually high rate and being bothered by bizarre phone calls where they are spoken to by metallic, unhuman-sounding voices.

Unusual noises on the phone, intensifying whenever UFOs are mentioned, and voices breaking in on conversations, have all led many people to suspect that their phones are being tapped. One can’t discuss the MIB for long without mentioning the name of John A. Keel, an author who has written much about them. Keel has done more than any other writer to publicise this bizarre aspect of the UFO situation. Keel suggests that the UFO are part of the environment itself and come from another time-space continua; that most of the UFO phenomena is psychic and psychological rather than physical. Well, I personally would not define it that way, although those two components are certainly deeply involved in what’s going on.

The first noted appearance of the MIB was in 1947, at the scene of the Maury Island incident, where some debris was ejected from a disk, and subsequently recovered by officials, who loaded them on an Army bomber which crashed on takeoff. To illustrate a little how bizarre some of the incidents are regarding the MIB, I have assembled a short list of some of the more interesting factors in some cases:

- An ex-Air Force man is gassed and interrogated by MIB after he has learned classified NASA secrets.
- Close-up photos of UFOs were seized from a teenager who is also directly threatened by MIB.
- MIB sighted in the lobby of the U.S. State Department leave a mysterious artefact.
- MIB pose as Air Force officers to silence witnesses.
- MIB tries to buy before-hours Coke and sings to birds in trees.
- MIB disintegrates a coin in a witness’ hand and tells him that his heart will do the same if he talks.
- Throughout all this information, I have neglected to mention some aspects of the psychology of the Greys. Dr. Paul Bennewitz, in his original report to the government entitled “Project Beta,” goes into some detail, which I will now discuss:
- The alien, either through evolution or because the humanoid types are “made,” will exhibit tendencies for bad logic. They appear to have more frailties and weaknesses than the normal Homo Sapien.

- They are not to be trusted.
- Because of the aliens' apparent logic system, a key decision cannot be made without higher clearance. All are under control of what they call "The Keeper," yet it would appear that even this is not the final authority. Delays as long as 12-15 hours can occur for a decision.
- Because of this apparent control, individual instantaneous decision-making by the alien is limited. If the "plan" goes even slightly out of balance or context, they become confused. Faced with this, possibly, the humanoids would be the first to run.
- Psychologically their morale is near disintegration.
- There is pronounced dissension in the ranks—even with the humanoids.
- Because of their own internal vulnerability mind-wise to each other, there is a basic lack of trust between them.
- They appear to be totally death-oriented, and because of this, absolutely death-fear oriented. This is a psychological advantage.
- The prime, and weakest area discovered, probed and tested is exactly what they have used, thinking it their key strength—that being the manipulation of and control of the mind. Manipulated in reverse-psychology they face a situation where they have a vulnerable, integrated weakness.
- They totally respect force.

Grey Physiology and Anatomy

The approximate height of most specimens is between 3.5 and 4.5 feet. The head, by human standards, is large in comparison with the body. Facial features show a pair of eyes described as large, sunken or deeply set, far apart or distended more than the human, and slightly slanted as Oriental or Mongoloid. No ear lobes or apertures on the side of the head were seen. The nose is vague. One or two holes have been mentioned. The mouth area is described as a small slit or fissure. In some cases there is no mouth at all. It appears not to function as a means for communication or for food. The neck area is described as being thin, in some instances not being visible at all because of the tightly-knit garment. Most observers describe these humanoids as being hairless. Some of the bodies recovered have a slight hair-patch atop the head. Others have what appears to be like a silver skullcap. There were no breathing attachments or communications devices. This suggests telepathy with higher intelligence. In one instance there was an opening in the right frontal lobe area, revealing a crystalline network. This network implies the development of a third brain.

The arms are described as long and thin, reaching down to the knee section. The hangers each contain four fingers, with no thumbs. Three fingers are longer than the other. Some are very long. Some are very short. Others are very short. No description is available of the legs and feet. Some pathologists indicate that that section of the body was not developed as we would anticipate, showing that some of these beings were adapted to life in the water. There was a webbing effect between the fingers on most of the specimens.

According to most observers, the skin is grey. Some claim it is beige, tan or pinkish-grey. No reproductive organs or capabilities were discovered. No phallus. No womb. Confirms cloning mentioned by other sources. The humanoids appear to be from a mould, sharing identical racial and biological characteristics. There is no blood as we know it, but there is a fluid which is greyish in colour.

Real Esoterica—Sirius and the MIB

Let's regress for a moment back to the MIB. According to John

Keel, the MIB often state that they are representatives of the "Nation of the Third Eye." Based on some of the info we have already researched, it is apparent that Sirius has been in contact with us for a long time. According to George Hunt Williamson (one of the early contactees) in his book "Other Tongues, Other Flesh," the earth allies of Sirius, i.e., the secret societies, use the Eye of Horus as an insignia. This symbol has also been seen on the MIB. Secret societies believe that there is a Great White Lodge on earth. They call it Shamballa—and consider it to be the spiritual centre of the world. Now, theosophists such as Alice Bailey say that the Great White Lodge is on Sirius. If the All-Seeing-Eye is a symbol of Sirius' earth-allies and the MIB wear that symbol, and if Shamballa represents the Great White Lodge on earth—then the MIB are emissaries of Shamballa. Sirius and Shamballa are two sides of the same coin. This is verified in the book "The Undiscovered Country," by Stephen Jenkins. Jenkins was told by Buddhist priests that Shamballa was located in the constellation of Orion.

The entrance to Shamballa on earth is usually placed in the trans-Himalayan region. Some assert it is in the heart of the Gobi Desert (where there have been allegations of crashed disks and bases). According to the explorer Nicholas Roerich, there are caves in the Himalayan foothills that have subterranean passages. In one of these passages, there is a stone door that has never been opened, because the time for its opening has not yet arrived. In 1930, Doreal founded the Brotherhood of the White Temple. He says that the entrance to Shamballa is far underground. He goes on to say that space bends around Shamballa, and that there is a warp which leads into another universe.

Let's get back to something we can have more of a direct handle on. Many times psychics have been called upon by investigative authorities to evaluate situations, and in many cases what they have contributed has been very helpful. This was done in the case of animal mutilations back in 1980 by Peter Jordan, who engaged several psychics to render their impressions from photos and maps of mutilations and mutilation areas. What follows is a condensation of what was found during this exercise.

Name of Psychic: Ronald Mangravite

- This animal has been dead a few days.
- Some parts are decaying faster than others.
- There is an overload of electrolytes in the body possibly due to injection of a citrate.
- Something wrong with blood. Picking up higher portion of plasma which may be lymphatic fluid.
- Two men working on the animal. Very sharp surgical knives.
- Men dressed in black. Jump-suits. Shiny black nylon.
- Winch line coming down from chopper.
- Men are skilled ex-military.
- Something is going to be done with the tissue.
- Fluometry connection. Spectrophotometers.
- Choppers are brown or grey.
- Underground implications.
- Experimentation with different analytical techniques.

Name of Psychic: Elisabeth Lerner

- Paramilitary forces.
- A serious invasion of American privacy.
- Non-American Indians part of secret project.
- The word "Annide."
- The word "Carmine" or "Karmine."
- The symbol "dk."
- A new wave of mutilations will strike near south-west New Mexico.
- The Hobart Company is involved in this. (Refrigeration equipment?)

- Three huge, doughnut-shaped objects will be seen in conjunction with these new mutilations.
- Breakthrough in research.
- Muscle relaxant injections.
- Someone with the name "Empeda."
- This is a Mexican operation.
- Names "Kielman" and "Kelman."
- Institution with many Lincoln Continentals and Cadillacs.
- Laboratory underground.
- Lilly Pharmaceuticals.
- Roman numerals IVIII [sic].
- Name "Stephano."
- The number "1714."
- Last name "Audler."
- First name "Mase."
- Last name "Audli."
- Jet rocket labs nearby.
- Domes above the ground.
- Vehicle ID # MP 1936. Small jeeps.
- Last name "Plento."
- Initials "C.B.P." heads operation. Wears brown military shoes. Army.
- Number "1161."
- Around an oil field.
- Place where oil crosses in an "X" pattern.
- Chemical engineering connections.
- Mustard.
- Periscope device on bottom of craft. Chopper called "The Shark."
- Man with blond hair. English features. High forehead. Wears square ring. Insignia reads "C.B.P." Has something to do with ammunition. Colonel.
- Name of Psychic: Nancy Fuchs
- Dusk scene. Men talking about some animal's throat. Something missing.
- Cylindrical object.

Among the great heaps of neglected and ignored UFO data, we find hundreds of "minipeople" accounts. These are very rarely published anywhere because they tend to be so unbelievable. Most of them are identical to the fairy and gnome stories of yesteryear. Witnesses to these events can experience conjunctivitis, akinesia (paralysis), amnesia, and the other effects often noted by witnesses to more conventional events. One notable event is one that occurred in Seattle, Washington, in the latter part of August, 1965. A woman awoke around 2 a.m. and discovered she could not move a muscle or make a sound. Her window was open, and suddenly a tiny, football-sized dull-grey object floated through the window and hovered over the carpet near her bed. Three legs lowered from the object and it settled to the floor. A small ramp extended from it and five or six tiny people clambered out and seemed to work on some kind of repairs on the object. They wore tight-fitting clothing. When they were finished, they got in and the object took off and sailed out the window. At that point, she was able to move. The case was investigated by J. Russell Jenkins of Seattle.

You can readily see why almost none of these kinds of stories ever appear in print, except in occult-oriented literature. Nevertheless, if we hope to assess the true UFO situation, we must examine all these stories. We can learn nothing by considering only those incidents which are emotionally and intellectually acceptable to us.

TIME is one of the most important aspects of the UFO thing. It plays a strange but significant role. Part of the answer may not lie in the stars but in the clock ticking on your fireplace.

Our world exists in three dimensions. We can move in many directions within these dimensions. Space does not exist except when we make it exist. To us, the distance between atoms in our matter is so minute that it can only be calculated with hypothetical measurements. Yet, if we lived on an atom, and our size was relative to its size, the distance to the next atom would seem awesome.

There is another man-made measurement called time. Unlike the other three dimensions, time has us seemingly trapped. Time becomes very real to us, and it appears that we couldn't live without it. Yet time doesn't really exist at all. This moment exists to us. Does this mean the same moment is being shared by other planets?

The UFO phenomenon does seem to be controlled. It does follow intelligent patterns. If the objects themselves are manifestations of higher energies, then something has to manipulate those energies somehow and reduce them to the visible frequencies. Not only do they enter the visible frequencies, but they take forms which seem physical and real to us, and they carry out actions which seem to be intelligent.

Thus we arrive at the source. The source has to be a form of intelligent energy operating at the highest possible point of the frequency spectrum. If such an energy exists at all, it might permeate the universe and maintain equal control of each component part. Because of its very high frequency, so high that the energy particles are virtually standing still, the source has no need to replenish itself in any way that would be acceptable to our environmental sciences. It could actually create and destroy matter by manipulating the lower energies. It would be timeless, because it exists beyond all time fields. It would be infinite because it is not confined by three-dimensional "space."

Children figure neatly into this, and they always have. The child's mind, especially before the so-called age of reason when the logic circuits begin to form, is a clear instrument, open and uninfluenced by opinions and conclusions. This is an important point in the UFO mystery.

Perhaps if we were in a pure energy state, each particle of energy would itself serve as a synapse, and information could be stored by a slight alteration in frequency. All the memory fragments of a rose, for example, would be recorded at one frequency, and the whole energy form could tune into that memory by adjusting frequencies, as we might adjust a radio receiver. In other words, no complex circuitry would be required. No body would be necessary. The energy patterns would not need material form. It would permeate the entire universe. It could surround you completely at this very moment and be aware of all the feeble impulses of low energy passing through your brain. If it so desired, it could control those pulses and thus control your thoughts. Man has always been aware of this intelligent energy or force. He has always worshipped it.

Our first conclusion is that the UFOs originate from beyond our own time frame or time cycle. Our second conclusion is that the source has total foreknowledge of human events and even of individual lives. Since time and space are not absolutes, these two conclusions are compatible.

It is that all human events occur simultaneously when viewed by a greater intelligence. If a greater intelligence wants to communicate with a lower form, all kinds of problems are presented. The communication must be conducted in a manner which will be meaningful and understandable to the lower life form. An acceptable frame of reference must be found and utilized.

UFO phenomenon, especially the "soft" ones, are frequently reflective; that is, the observed manifestations seem to be deliberately tailored and adjusted to the individual beliefs and attitudes of the witnesses. Contactees are given information which, in most cases, conforms to their beliefs. UFO researchers who concentrate on one particular aspect or theory find themselves inundated with seemingly reliable reports which seem to substantiate that theory.

John Keel's extensive experiences with this reflective factor led him to carry out weird experiments which confirmed that a large part of the reported data is engineered and deliberately false. The witnesses are not the perpetrators, but merely the victims. The apparent purpose of all this false data is multifold.

Much of it is meant to create confusion and diversion. Some of it has served to support certain beliefs which were erroneous but which would serve as stepping-stones to the higher, more complex truth. Whole generations have come and gone, happily believing in the false data, unaware that they were mere links in the chain.

If it were all understood too soon, we might crumble under the weight of the truth. This earth is covered with windows into those other unseen worlds. If we had the instruments to detect them, we would find that these windows are the focal points for super high-frequency waves—the "rays" of ancient lore. These rays might come from Orion or the Pleiades as the ancients claimed, or they might be part of the great force that emanates throughout the universe. The UFOs have given us the evidence that such rays exist. Now, slowly, we are being told why.

It is also apparent that some entities are having a good laugh at our expense. As mentioned before, literature indicates that the phenomenon carefully cultivated the religious frame of reference in early times, just as the modern manifestations have carefully supported the extraterrestrial frame of reference.

The Devil's emissaries of yesteryear have been replaced by the mysterious "men in black." A major, but little-explored, aspect of the UFO phenomenon is therefore theological and philosophical rather than purely scientific. The UFO problem can never be untangled by physicists and scientists unless they are men who also are schooled in the other disciplines. The earth was occupied before man arrived or was created.

That's an important point to consider. The original occupants were parapsychical and possessed the power of transmutation of matter. Man was the interloper. The inevitable conflict arose between physical man and the parapsychical owners of the planet. Man accepted the interpretation that this conflict raged between his creator and the Devil. The religious viewpoint has always been that the Devil has been attacking man (trying to get rid of him) by causing havoc upon him. There is historical and modern proof that this may be so.

It is interesting that parapsychologists have long concluded that the paralysis that contactees experience is a contributing cause; that the entity may materialise by utilising energy from the percipient himself.

John Keel has in his files hundreds of cases, some of which have now been investigated by qualified psychiatrists, in which young men and women obsessed with the UFO phenomenon have suffered frightening visits from apparitions, followed up by mysterious black Cadillacs which appeared and disappeared suddenly, and have been terrified into up their pursuit of the UFOs. The phenomenon is again reflective in nature; the more frightened the victim becomes, the more the manifestations are escalated. Think about it.

The Other Side of the Coin

There is a balance in nature, and there also seems to be a balance in the UFO picture. People have actually died after exposure to the gamma and UV rays from UFOs. But other people have actually had their ailments cured by similar rays. Occult literature is filled with accounts of this type.

Except for those who might be specially constructed for incubus-succubus activities, it does appear that our "angels" and "spacemen" come from a world, in many cases, with sex—and very probably, a world without an organised society, a world in which each individual is merely a unit in the whole and is totally controlled by the collective intelligence or energy mass of that whole. In other words, these beings, or some of them anyway, have no free will. They are slaves of a very high order. Often they try to convey this to percipients with their statements, "We are One," "We are in bondage."

We face a great task in trying to isolate the UFO phenomenon from the larger and more important "big picture," the overall situation of which the UFOs are merely a small part.

Elemental beings are another aspect of the world we live in.

Children see them more than adults, perhaps for the reasons described before. Historical records certainly indicate that the little people have always existed all over this planet; that they possess the power of flight, the power of invisibility, and, to varying degrees, the power to dominate and control the human mind. Accounts of little humanoids with supernatural powers can be found in almost every culture.

The manifestations have remained the same throughout history.

Only our interpretations of those events have changed. It brought the birth of Spiritualism, which was in its heyday in the 1850s and 1860s, and was just another form of communication between the ultraterrestrials and ourselves.

UFO flaps also parallel outbreaks of poltergeist cases. It all ties in together. Assuming that each discovered historical report represents a larger number of unpublished or undiscovered reports, just as today's UFO reports represent on the average 250 unreported or unpublished sightings, we can conclude that a flap condition existed, for example, in the years 1820, 1834, 1844, 1846, and 1849. We also find that there was an outbreak of poltergeists in 1835, 1846, and 1849.

As the 19th century progressed, reporting improved, and we are able to make more precise correlations. A UFO flap took place in 1850, and there was also a series of poltergeist cases. A larger poltergeist outbreak occurred in 1867, following flaps in 1863-64. UFO activity became more intense beginning in 1870, and there were notable flaps in 1872, 1877, and 1879. The 1880s produced a major explosion of all kinds of phenomena, including the sudden disappearance of people. Poltergeist cases were in abundance in that decade, particularly in the big flap years of 1883 and 1885.

Astrophysicist Morris K. Jessup labelled the years 1877-87 the "Incredible Decade" after scouring astronomical journals of the period. Astronomers made some remarkable discoveries during those years. The previously unobserved satellites of Mars popped into view in 1877, new craters appeared on the moon, all kinds of strange objects flitted around the upper atmosphere.

The trance phenomenon deserves extensive study because so many aspects of it are directly related to the contactee phenomenon. In both, you will find the same contradictions. There seem to be both good and evil forces at work. The good guys latch onto people with particularly receptive minds and turn them into trance mediums and the bad guys use the same methods to tamper with the minds of contactees and even to commit murder indirectly. Since incidents of these types can be traced throughout history, it seems probable that these forces have always been here on this planet. Do the ultraterrestrials really care about us? There is much evidence to suggest that they don't. They care only to the extent that we can fulfill our enigmatic use to them.

There have been innumerable psychic hoaxes for the past 150 years, and many of these parallel the UFO hoaxes. In ufology we have to contend with the teenager's hot air balloon, and in psychic phenomenon we have to worry about youngsters firing rocks at houses. There are, however, more UFO sightings than there are plastic balloons, and more poltergeists dumping rocks in living rooms than there are wild-eyed youngsters with slingshots. There are also more ultraterrestrial entities than either the occultists or the UFO researchers can dream of.

Giant winged beings, usually described as headless, are an integral part of the UFO phenomenon. Winged human forms have been seen flying over many areas of the world. John A. Keel wrote a book called the "Mothman Prophecies" and Gray Barker a book called "The Silver Bridge" that go into some detail. They are usually described as having blazing red eyes set deep in their shoulders.

On May 13, 1917, three girls in Portugal were in the meadows of a place called Cova da Iria outside of Fatima, Portugal, when they saw a flash of light in the clear sky. They ran for shelter under a tree, thinking that was lightning. When they reached the tree, they stopped in amazement, for there hovering just above a 3-foot evergreen nearby, a brilliant globe of light hung suspended. Within this globe there was an entity garbed in a luminous white robe with a face of light which dazzled and hurt the eyes.

The figure stated that it was from heaven, and asked the girls to come there on the 13th day, for six months in succession. On October 13, 1917, an estimated 70,000 people had gathered at the site. Suddenly the crowd screamed, for something came through the clouds: a huge silver disk which rotated rapidly as it descended towards the crowd. It seemed to change colour, going through the spectrum. These gyrations continued for ten minutes. Miles from there, others were also watching the same object.

The incident at Fatima was obviously a carefully planned and deliberately executed demonstration. The major prophecies of Fatima had been written down and sealed in an envelope, and turned over to the Vatican. They were supposed to be revealed to the world in 1960. The secret of Fatima? One Pope was murdered after only 30 days in office when the Vatican thought he would reveal it. It is said to be a prediction of the end of the world. The demonstration was therefore a failure as far as the ultraterrestrials were concerned. Such demos proved highly effective in Biblical times, but times were changing and new methods were called for.

A similar event such as Fatima took place in Garabandal, Germany, on July 2, 1961. Even more startling, on the entity's right side they could see "a square of red fire framing a triangle with an eye and some writing. The lettering was in an old Oriental script." The Third Eye. Haven't we heard of that before? Remember the Nation of the Third Eye—the MIB. etc.?

At this point, I will put some references and excerpts from some volumes that I believe are relevant to all the things we've been talking about. Where I feel it is applicable, I will comment on them.

"The Goblin Universe"

(p222) The ability to materialize mental constructs is not unknown. Suppose one creates a field with the mind that is strong enough to attract supercharged particles. The particles are real but unstable in their assemblage since the stability depends on the intermediate mental component.

(p223) Physical aspect of UFOs and other phenomena lie in the behavior of electromagnetic fields.

(p124) If all UFO incidents were chance encounters, someone would have obtained a filmed record or a series of stills years ago. The only way that such episodes can be engineered so that they remain total mysteries is for the entities to have advance knowledge of any situation before it occurs.

(p117, referencing John Keel) These entities labor to cultivate belief in various frames of reference, and then they create new manifestation which support those beliefs.

(p120) Illness is common after close contact with some beings.

(p122) Guy Underwood classified primary geomagnetic currents into three classes: water lines, aquastats, and track lines. Some magnetic signals appear as spirals, others are linear. Gnats and flies congregate above magnetic patterns.

“Extra-Terrestrials Among Us”

(p2-3) On several occasions after UFOs flew over missile sites, it was found that the targeting of the missiles had changed, and the warheads had to be replaced.

(p3) On 22 June 1980 a UFO that was 10 miles in diameter was reported over the Kuwait oil fields.

(p4) On July 30, 1985, a UFO over Mongolia that was 10 km in diameter was reported heading south. It was sighted by a Chinese jet and reported in the “Japan Times.” The United States ignored this report.

(p8) JANAP-146 specifies up to 10 years in prison and $10,000 in fines for anyone in government service who makes unauthorized public statements about UFO phenomena. The British Official Secrets Act makes similar provisions.

(p9) Many routes of UFOs take the form of an isosceles triangle.

(p16) On September 14, 1978, a UFO as big as an ocean liner flew over Italy, and over Rome on the 15th and 16th.

Comment: This was two weeks before Pope John Paul I was found dead under suspicious circumstances. He was killed between September 28-29. Autopsy was refused. It was rumored he intended to reveal the Fatima message of 1917.

(p 20) UFOs dart around in daylight at speeds which cannot be seen.

(p22) An individual having one CE experience usually has another.

(p24) There is no basis to support psychiatric pathology for UFO witnesses.

(p24) Dr. Brian T. Clifford (Pentagon) announces on October 5, 1982, that contact between U.S. citizens and extraterrestrials on their vehicles is illegal. Title 14, Section 1211 of the Code of Federal Regulations (adopted July 16, 1969, before the first manned lunar landing) says that anyone guilty of this becomes a wanted criminal to be jailed for one year and fined $5,000. The NASA administrator is empowered to determine WITH OR WITHOUT A HEARING that a person has been “ET-exposed” and impose INDETERMINATE quarantine under armed guard, which cannot be broken even by court order.

(p89) Mars has a history of transient phenomena.

(p90) Temporary brilliant spots on Mars were reported by astronomers in 1890, 1892, 1900, 1911, 1924, 1937, 1952, 1954, 1967, and 1971. The distribution was non-random. Intensely dark spots, transient in nature, were reported on Mars in 1925, 1952, and 1954.

(p93) About 33% of abductees are able to remember the experiences without hypnotic regression. 66% of the abductees were alone when abducted.

(p94) Some abductees did not return but vanished permanently or were found dead after a UFO encounter.

(p25) Records of the 687 B.C. battle between the Assyrians and the Hebrews indicate that “a blast from heaven” reduced the bodies of 185,000 Assyrians to ashes but left their clothes intact.

(p145) Morris K. Jessup died under mysterious circumstances after a copy of his book “Case for the UFO” was sent to the Chief of the Office of Naval Research (ONR) in Washington.

(p146 -- comments from “Case for the UFO”)

- Falls from the sky of flesh, blood, reptiles, etc., were due to either spoiled food or cleaning of holding tanks.
- Comments describe TWO different space races who share the planet with us without our knowledge. They are not visitors—they have been here longer than we have. They feel more at ease in the ocean.
- The little men were almost wiped out by a serpent race identified only as the “S-men.” S-men are ravenous for red meat, extremely materialistic, and are greedy for power.

Comment: Sounds like the Deros of Shavarian fame.

(p147) Thanks to Allen Dulles in partnership with Reinhard Gehlen, the Gestapo was transplanted intact into the United States system as the CIA, without the knowledge or consent of American citizens. Comment: Remember Reagan placing wreaths on graves of SS stormtroopers at the 40th anniversary of WWII? Roots of that symbolic gesture go deep.

(p147) Reference the Intelligence Identity Protection Act of 1981: Freedom to speak about anything but the CIA. Some claim that concentration camps have already been built. Activation was sealed by Executive Order Rex 84. The next REX exercise in 1988.

(p148) Jessup: “I believe that space structures of 5-10 miles in diameter are sufficiently large to produce intelligently directed storms.”

(p150) Alleged alien comment in annotated edition of “Case for the UFO”: “Men frozen helpless make good prey.”

(p151) Dr. James E. McDonald thought that the Federal Power Commission was evading the evidence concerning UFO involvement in the total power failure that paralyzed New York on July 13, 1965, and dared to say so in front of a Congressional committee.

(p152) On June 13, 1971, James E. McDonald was found dead under mysterious circumstances, shot through the head with a pistol by his side.

(p153) Murder disguised as suicide is one of the well-known specialties of the CIA.

(p153) There is ample documentation suggesting that among the highest-priority covert operations of the CIA are those supplying heroin to the Mafia. The “war on drugs” is in fact a war on the independent drug dealer who constitutes a threat to the Mafia monopoly. Comment: Additional ways to subdue the population or eliminate undesirables?

(p156) Karen Silkwood’s murder disguised as auto accident.

(p159) George Adamski, contactee in the 1950s had a special government passport. Possible CIA disinformation agent.

(p162) Although mutilations were reported in England as early as 1904-1905, (“Winter of Weirdness”), the large-scale operations there began in 1973.

(p163) A rancher and his sons saw a UFO as big as a hotel which was accompanied by four smaller ones. Rectangular in shape, 300-400 feet long, and 60 feet high. A helicopter approached it and turned into a small UFO.

(p163) Phantom cars appear on roads, follow people, and disappear.

(p163) A rancher and his wife looked at a UFO 5/8 of a mile away and reported that two appendages emerged from the egg-shaped object.

(p164) Apparently UFOs have the capability of invisibility.

(p164) Materialization of a Bigfoot before a witness.

(p164) Dematerialization of Bigfoot before witness who shot it with a 16-gauge shotgun at point-blank range into its stomach.

(p166) On August 21, 1975, a sheriff was chasing an unmarked helicopter in his plane in southwestern Nebraska at 0430 when the lights on the helicopter went out, and the only thing seen on the ground was a missile silo.

(p166) About the time mutilations began in earnest (1973 wave), a new branch of science was beginning to develop—biogeochemistry—analysis of mineral and oil deposits by analysis of tissues of herbivorous animals.

(p168) An elderly lady in Arkansas in 1979 injured herself and was cut during a fall. The injuries were repaired by two aliens, who gave her a piece of metal with pyramids and six-pointed stars on it. The aliens told her they “consumed juice,” but not the kind consumed by humans. Six weeks later, she was out looking for her dog and spotted a horse lying on its side, unconscious.

Two men in white, dressed like surgeons, were at work on the horse. There were two Air Force helicopters parked in the clearing, two men in Air Force uniforms, and the same two aliens who had helped her after her fall. The lady was spotted by the group and she was overtaken by a helicopter which flashed a blue light on her which burned her clothing. Help arrived as the helicopter retreated, and she was brought to the local hospital. People having nothing to do with the hospital staff began turning up to question her. After release she was harassed at all hours by strangers who insisted on questioning her, repeating the same questions over and over again. The couple moved to a different state, only to have it start all over again. MUFON began investigating this case, but as of 1986 had not yet made public its conclusions. Research into the case began in 1980.

(p171) Tissue samples taken from a carcass revealed the presence of chlorpromazine, a tranquilizer.

(p171 comment by Gabe Valdez) "Whoever is doing these mutilations are highly organized and have a lot of resources."

(p172) The theory of biogeochemical basis for the mutilations fails to account for the fact that mutilations are worldwide.

(p174) When FBI agent Rommel was given $50K to investigate the mutilations in one district in New Mexico, all mutilations in that district stopped during the year.

(p177) The Condon Report, Rommel Report, and the Warren Report all have a resemblance.

(p177) The human tendency to avoid facing unpleasant facts may allow parasitic entities to "farm us."

(p178) A seven-year-old heifer was found whose unborn calf had been removed with breaking the placental bag.

(p181) U.S. Senate lied to by Pentagon in 1968 during Senate hearings on UFOs.

(p200) In an anonymous letter to a Denver paper on April 8, 1983, it was told that the mutilations are being done by a secret government group called Delta. Animal parts are used to test effects of germ warfare and poison (cyanide and dioxin) they are testing on civilians in America. Testing is associated with black helicopters. Helicopters are also used to ferry heroin and cocaine. Delta bases said to be all underground on Indian Reservations. HQ for operations and where a lot of choppers are based in 28 miles east of Albuquerque on I-40, then 14 miles north on a dirt road into the Laguna Indian Reservation. Comment:

Disinformation attempt?

(p204, UPI story, February 2, 1984) Dr. James Womack at Texas A&M University announced his discovery that humans share "perfect match" chromosomes with cattle. The perfect match is with portions of the 21st chromosome pair, a strand known to carry characteristics of Mongolism or Down's Syndrome, associated with mental retardation. Dr. Womack says, "We must have more in common than previously believed."

(p205, 1984 letter) A recent arrival on the nutritional scene is protomorphogens, or glandulars—ground up glands of cattle. If one takes these for a year you get "hooked" on them. Your own glands stop producing hormones.

Many EBEs have no alimentary canals and no glands.

In some cancer clinics, these glandulars are used to treat cancer victims, and so are glands from human fetuses.

(p206) What is happening with the mutilations would make sense in human terms if the location on which the cattle grazed was important, or the parts taken could be used geobiologically (which they aren't).

(p208) UFOs are: Extraterrestrial, ultraterrestrial, interdimensional, and time travelers.

(p208) Some UFOs behave as if the UFO itself was a living organism. Comment: Refer to Trevor James Constable's book "Sky Creatures," for a discussion of biological aeroforms, of "Flying Saucers at Etibi-Raa," by Wendell Stevens for a discussion of just that subject.

(p208) Entities with cyborg-like traits, having both mechanical and biological features, turn up quite frequently in reports.

(p208) It is odd that among the viruses there are some that look like UFOs, like T. Bacteriophage. Do some UFO have the ability to operate in the micro-dimension of viruses? Comment: In the discipline of Yoga is noted the ability to become large or small.

(p209) Anyone with more access to even one more dimension than we have access to could evade our most carefully planned investigations indefinitely.

(p210) Modern brain capacity: 1300cc

Cro-magnon man: 1400cc

Baskop man (megroid [sic] race): 1800cc

The last two appeared quite suddenly.

(p210) Theory of Max H. Flindt attributes paradoxically rapid development of the human brain to interbreeding between primitive humanity and ETs.

According to Flindt, schizophrenia is caused by subconscious racial memory of the ET branch of the family tree, longing for home. Considerable differences between glandular and nervous systems between primitive humans and ETs would provide a basis for traumatic tension associated with regressed memory.

(p210) Our civilization has forgotten the existence of other intelligent beings in the universe.

(p211) The idea that Homo Sapiens is unique is becoming no longer tenable.

[comment - i suggest you read CODE OF THE LIFEMAKER by James P. Hogan to give you a perspective of what an invading species would do or perceive about the victim species, in a human point of view.] Well, as if this weren't enough, let's examine the basic allegations that were raised by Gary Stollman when he held an empty BB gun to David Horowitz on KNBC Channel 4, Los Angeles, in October, 1987. Gary clearly thought that he was alone in his knowledge, and evidently turned to desperation to have the public become aware of what he knew. For the sake of brevity, I will simply summarize the allegations, and make comments where I wish to do so:

- His physical father is in fact a clone created by the CIA and alien forces.
- Cloning is a part of a plot to overthrow the U.S government.
- The CIA maintains mental-retraining hospitals.
- Phones were turned off at Rohlman Psychiatric Hospital in Cincinnati for 48 hours after his arrival.
- A former CIA official had an interview on KPFK radio in which he told a college audience that the CIA has towed barges across New York Harbor that were disease-ridden.
- The CIA may have created the AIDS virus to wipe out the gay population. Comment: Hmmm, where have we heard THAT before?
- The CIA assassinated John F. Kennedy and the 22 material witnesses who died with two years. Comment:
- Hmmmm, I have heard that as well.
- He demands that the Air Force release all
- information on UFOs.
- He demands that the information about Hanger 18 at Wright-Patterson [AFB] be released.
- He relates that he spoke to a girl at Florida Junior College who told him that seven of her friends had been "replaced."
- The CIA doesn't trust people on computers.
- Individuals at the Optimist Boys School in Pasadena were recruited by others and given false IDs and birth certificates.
- There is a secret group led by the President's own staff.
- There are beings around with the power to teleport instantly and do the same to others; who can read and control minds, and transform matter into other forms and create it at will.
- He asks for a congressional investigation and federal protection.
- He states that he cannot harm anyone with an empty BB gun.

Well, what do you think? [Name deleted in original, replaced with the word "MUFON"] contacted Mr. Stollman's lawyer in December, 1987, and told him that some of what Gary had said may be true. His lawyer promptly made himself scarce.

For some of you who keep an eye on the news, the President (Reagan) has said some mighty interesting things in some speeches of his:

To the students of Fallston High School in Fallston, Maryland, on December 4, 1985, he said "I couldn't but—one point in our discussions with General Secretary Gorbachev—when you stop to think that we're all God's children, wherever we may live in the world, I couldn't help but say to him, just think how easy his task and mine might be in these meetings that we held if suddenly there was a threat to this world from some other species from another planet outside in the universe. We'd forget all the little local differences that we have between our countries and we would find out once and for all that we really are all human beings on this earth together.

"Well, I don't suppose we can wait for some alien race to come down and threaten us...."

To the 42nd General Assembly of the United Nations, September 21, 1987:

"In our obsession with antagonisms of the moment, we often forget how much unites all the members of humanity. Perhaps we need some outside universal threat to make us recognize this common bond. I occasionally think how quickly our differences worldwide would vanish if we were facing an alien threat from outside this world. And yet, I ask you, is not an alien force already among us? What could be more alien to the universal aspirations of our peoples than war and the threat of war?" Comment: Apparently Mr. Reagan doesn't realize that war is NOT alien to the aspirations of peace—it's always been here. Does Mr. Reagan know something that we know but the general public doesn't know about what is happening and what will happen within the next five years?

General Types of Entities

The Greys are known to be of three types:

- Grey 1: 3.5 feet tall. Large head. Large slanted eyes. Worship Technology and don't care about us. Type popularized in "Communion" by Strieber.
- Grey 2: Same general appearance, although has a different finger arrangement and a slightly different face. More sophisticated than Grey 1. They possess a degree of common sense and are somewhat passive. It is not known if they require the secretions needed by Grey 1.
- Grey 3: Same basic type. Lips thinner. Subservient to other two types.

Other entities known to frequent this planet:

- Blonds/Swedes/Nordics: Known by any of these names. Similar to us. Blond hair, blue eyes. Will not break law of non-interference to help us. Would only intervene if the Greys' activity would affect other parts of the universe.
- Interdimensional: Entities that can assume a variety of shapes. Basically of a peaceful nature.
- Short Humanoids: 1.5 to 2.5 feet tall, skin bluish in color. Seen quite frequently in Mexico near Chihuahua.
- Hairy Dwarfs: 4 feet tall. Weigh about 35 pounds. Hairy.

Neutral. Respect intelligent life.

- Very Tall Race: Look like us but 7-8 feet tall. United with the Swedes.
- Nordic Clones: Appear similar to us but with grey tinge to their skin. These are drones created by the Greys. Child-like mentality.
- Men-In-Black (MIB): Oriental or olive-skinned. Eyes sensitive to light. Eyes have vertical pupils. Very pale skin in some types. Do not conform easily to our social patterns. Usually wear black clothes, drive black cars, and wear sunglasses. In groups they all dress alike. Sometimes time-disoriented. they cannot handle a psychological "curve-ball" or interruption to their plan. Often intimidate UFO witnesses and impersonate government officials. Equivalent of our CIA. From another galaxy.

Although there are some 40 or more known types of aliens visiting our world at the present time, these are the most commonly seen types.

Extract of information from: "UFO Contact from Undersea," Sanchez/Stevens Section I: Regression session, Filiberto Cardenas (subject) Event date: 3 January 1979 UFO CEIII During the regression session(s) the following information came forth:

- 1. Subject was taken to one of three pyramid bases. Two pyramid bases are under ocean, one on land. Subject was taken to base between Berin and Santiago of the coast of Chile. Other underwater base is in the Atlantic in an unspecified location. The base was entered through an underwater tunnel. The aliens stated that they had been there 36 months at that time.
- 2. Aliens told the subject that there were six (6) other individuals whom the aliens had contacted.
- 3. Subject stated that the aliens voiced that they were eventually going to make themselves known to the world.
- 4. Aliens stated that they control the Chinese, and they have provided the Chinese with a device that can "paralyze cities and towns completely."
- 5. Aliens stated that the device will cause a change that "is going to be something for which the world cannot wait." The Chinese are to provoke certain unspecified changes, and that in those changes, "people who are negative will disappear."
- 6. Subject remembers seeing (future) scenes of people running disoriented along roads, and that there is a disaster coming.
- 7. Details of underwater tunnel described as walls of "firmed water," not rock. The ship evidently generated a force field which repelled the water around it.
- 8. Devices were supposedly installed in subject's head by aliens. Subsequent x-rays revealed nothing.

(Session 3)

- 1. First contact with these groups of aliens began 4,000 years ago.
- 2. It has been thousands of years since this group last descended to earth.
- 3. If progress on earth does not continue, aliens will use more forceful demonstrations to get their point across that we must have peace and progress.
- 4. Subject was interrogated for 15 days after the events by US security and intelligence services.
- 5. Information from aliens had also to do with "an atrocity in the plans certain forces on earth had planned."
- 6. Subject was seven years old when contact with aliens first occurred.
- 7. Aliens have ability to dematerialize their craft.

- 8. Aliens stated that we should beware of other alien groups who will present themselves in a good light but if they pursue "bad objectives against us they could do two things. They could destroy this planet with the same arms that this planet has, or on the contrary, transport away all our arms in one operation, which would take no more than 20 minutes of our time. They can be visible or not, whatever they choose."
- 8. [sic] Treatise references 81 other crossbreeds from (negative) aliens who have performed duties on earth. Half alien-half earthling = Crossbreed
- 9. Aliens spoke of great portions of land and whole cities will [sic] disappear. Mexico City and major cities in California.

History and Operations - Operation Trojan Horse

The amusing little mystery of flying saucers slowly evolves into a complicated series of coincidences and paradoxes as we plunge deeper and deeper into the data, excluding nothing, and considering everything as objectively as possible.

Our skies have been filled with "Trojan Horses" throughout history, and like the original Trojan Horse, the SEEM to conceal hostile intent. Several facts are now apparent:

- The objects have always chosen to operate in a clandestine manner, furtively choosing the hours of darkness for their enigmatic activities over thinly-populated areas, where the possibility of being detected is slight.
- The hostility factor is further supported by the fact that the objects chose, most often, to appear in forms which we can readily accept and explain to our own satisfaction—ranging from dirigibles to meteors and conventional-appearing airplanes.
- The objects of unusual configuration, undoubtedly constituting a deceptive minority of all the parapsychical objects flitting about in our atmosphere.

In other words, flying saucers are not at all what we have hoped they were. They are a part of something else. John A. Keel called that something else "Operation Trojan Horse."

When one really digs into UFO literature, it readily becomes clear that the ultraterrestrials deliberately conveyed whatever impression that would meet the available frame of reference for that time.

Until 1848, the religious frame of reference was constantly used by the phenomenon. As man's technology improved many of our old beliefs were discarded and the "phenomenon" was obliged to update its manifestations and establish new frames of reference. No more objects were seen in 1947 than had been seen in 1847. We were simply seeing them in a new way. A new game was being played with us.

A new game has emerged: the artifact or hardware game. The phenomenon has always obliged us by planting false evidence all over the landscape. UFO cultists trapped themselves into a hopeless situation almost from the outset. The apparent purpose of most of the landings seems to have been to advance belief in the frame of reference, not to provide absolute proof that the frame of reference is authentic.

Physical Evidence

All kinds of junk have fallen out of the sky throughout recorded history. Ivan T. Sanderson has in his files extensive lists that go back to Roman times. Ridiculous things such as stone pillars and heavy metal wheels have come crashing out of the blue, and there are countless cases of ice blocks, some weighing hundreds of pounds, dropping all over this planet. The flying saucers have been spewing all kinds of trash all over the landscape. In nearly every instance, these materials always prove to be ordinary earthly substances like magnesium, aluminum, chromium, and even plain old tin. Each of these incidents give the skeptics new ammunition.

Mysterious hollow spheres have also been dropping out of the sky all over the world. Three such spheres were found in the Australian desert in 1963. They were about 14 inches in diameter and had a shiny polished surface. Efforts to open the spheres failed, and they were turned over to the USAF. Other metal spheres have dropped out of the sky in Mexico (1967) and Conway, Arkansas (1967). The Mexican steel ball was identified as titanium, the one in Arkansas steel.

Smaller colored spheres were found scattered over the French countryside in 1966-67, as if it had been raining balls there. Where is all this stuff coming from? The same place as the stone pillars and blocks of ice. Innumerable cases of contact and landings have been flushed down the ufological drain because of the deliberate "negative factors." Sincere witnesses have actually been ruined because the amateur UFO investigators have accused them of being liars and worse.

Another fascinating game which the ufonauts play with a vengeance is the "repair" gambit. Beginning in 1897, there has been an endless stream of stories and reports, many from reliable witnesses, on how they encountered a grounded UFO and observed the occupants making repairs of some kind. The basic details in all these stories are so similar that it seems as if the ufonauts are following a carefully rehearsed procedure. Generally speaking, there are three (3) types of beings observed in relation to UFOs:

- Normal-looking people, including females.
- Oriental, dark-skinned beings.
- Unidentifiable creatures, who have made a real effort to hide from witnesses.

Oddly enough, when all the reports and the data is in, the scope of the phenomenon and the overwhelming quantity of reports negates its validity. An analysis of cases indicates that flying saucers are not, in most cases, stable machines requiring fuel, maintenance, and logistical support. Most of them are, in all probability, transmutations of energy from other dimensions and do not exist in the same way that this paper exists.

The UFO phenomenon seems to be largely subjective: that is, specific kinds of people become involved and are actually manipulated by the phenomenon in the same way that it manipulates matter. These subjective experiences are far more important to our study than the "random" superficial sightings. We are obliged to forget about the sightings and concentrate on the claims and experiences of the contactees.

Thousands of UFO photos have been taken since 1882. There's just one problem. With very few exceptions, no two UFO photos are alike. The sightings force two unacceptable answers upon us:

- All the witnesses were mistaken or lying.
- Some tremendous unknown civilization is exerting an all-out effort to manufacture thousands of different types of UFOs and is sending them all to our planet.

The governments of the world overtly have maintained variations of the first proposal. UFO enthusiasts accept the second. There is a third proposal which merits some attention: some "hard" objects definitely exist as temporary materializations from other dimensions. They leave indentations in the ground when they land. Witnesses have touched them and even been inside them. These "hard" objects may be decoys to cover the multitudinous activities of the "soft" objects. The "soft" objects hold one of the keys of the mystery. There are countless sightings of objects which changed size and shape in front of witnesses who often get the impression that it was alive, that it was not behaving like a mechanical object at all.

There is no question at all that there are intelligences that can manipulate or materialize any kind of object into our dimension. Let's take a look, for a second, at the electromagnetic spectrum. As you know, our visual spectrum makes up a small portion of the whole. Look at what's involved with UFOs:

If you will relate this to cases that you are familiar with, as far as appearance, spectrum shift when in flight, etc., you will see the applicability of the above diagram.

When UFO stabilize in our dimension they radiate energy on all frequencies and become glowing white. Radical maneuvers require a frequency alteration, which produces color changes. It is interesting to note that in Blue Book Report #14, they replaced the phrase "Electromagnetic Phenomenon" with the word "Unknown" in a majority of those cases. Why? There is no doubt that again, a situation exists where we have multiple realities within the UFO realm as well. It is clear that we are not dealing with random ET visitors. It has an extreme element of intention to do with all of it.

Mutilations started in April, 1897, with the abduction of Alexander Hamilton's calf, witnessed by several people. That is one of the constants that has been with us that has not changed frame of reference. How many people give thought to the three dark-skinned wise men who appeared before the birth of Jesus, spread the reality of the happening, and disappeared again. All the dark-skinned men in threes. MIB. It makes you wonder. Hmmm.

Charting the Enigma

Well, here we are again. Taking a sample of 33% of 10,000 or so cases, or about 3,330 cases, we find that 730 are so-called Type I, a low-level object observed and reported by reliable witnesses. It was found that 2,600 were Type II, high-altitude objects performing in a controlled manner and distinct from normal aircraft and natural phenomena. The time of the sightings depends on where you are. If you are in a rural area, sightings conveniently begin after 10 p.m. A populated area would have them between 2 a.m. and 4 a.m. For some reason, in many "flaps," Wednesday had about 20.5% of the sightings. Hmmm.

Now, if the UFO phenomenon (and I dislike that word) had a purely psychic basis then I would think there would be more sightings on a Saturday, when people are statistically out and about than on Wednesday. There are notable exceptions to everything of course, one of which was the "flap" of August 16, 1966, which was on a Tuesday.

Reports seem to cluster within political boundaries of states, as if there were a methodical exploration of states from border to border. If the UFO were a natural occurrence, one would expect otherwise. Thousands of sightings can be fitted into the "great circle" route, and often the dates are staggered so that it appears that the phenomenon moves systematically from point to point.

Every state in the United States has from two to ten "windows." These are areas where UFOs appear repeatedly year after year. The objects will appear in these places and pursue courses confined to sectors with a radius of about 200 miles. The great circle from Canada (not to be confused with the traditional Great Circle) in the northwest through the central states and back into northeast Canada is a major window. Hundreds of smaller windows lie within that circle. Another major window is centered in the Gulf of Mexico and encompasses much of Mexico, Texas and the Southwest.

As mentioned previously, many windows center directly over area of magnetic deviation. UFOs seem to congregate about the highest available hills in these window areas. They become visible in these centers and then radiate outward, traveling sometimes 100-200 miles before disappearing again.

Among the great heaps of neglected and ignored UFO data, we find hundreds of "minipeople" accounts. These are very rarely published anywhere because they tend to be so unbelievable. Most of them are identical to the fairy and gnome stories of yesteryear. Witnesses to these events can experience conjunctivitis, akinesia (paralysis), amnesia, and the other effects often noted by witnesses to more conventional events. One notable event is one that occurred in Seattle, Washington, in the latter part of August, 1965. A woman awoke around 2 a.m. and discovered she could not move a muscle or make a sound. Her window was open, and suddenly a tiny, football-sized dull-grey object floated through the window and hovered over the carpet near her bed. Three legs lowered from the object and it settled to the floor. A small ramp extended from it and five or six tiny people clambered out and seemed to work on some kind of repairs on the object. They wore tight-fitting clothing. When they were finished, they got in and the object took off and sailed out the window. At that point, she was able to move. The case as investigated by J. Russell Jenkins of Seattle.

You can readily see why almost none of these kinds of stories ever appear in print, except in occult-oriented literature. Nevertheless, if we hope to assess the true UFO situation, we must examine all these stories. We can learn nothing by considering only those incidents which are emotionally and intellectually acceptable to us.

QUESTIONS ON AQUARIUS by Christian P. Lambricht

It has been said that there are three kinds of people, those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, and those who wonder...what happened...? It seems that nothing more true could be said of the types of people involved in the arena of UFO interest. The recent controversy concerning the alleged project entitled "AQUARIUS" and the control group labeled "MJ-12" seems a prime example of the confusion that results from lack of communication between interested parties. Is there a project AQUARIUS which deals with UFOs? Who first discovered that such a project existed? If the documentation supporting the existence of an "MJ-12" group is valid, as some contend, then why does it appear full of discrepancies? These are questions that need to be addressed before any attempt can be made to judge the validity of the issues. As any good detective can tell, motivation is a helpful key in solving any crime or mystery. Who would stand to gain by the situation at hand? Perhaps a little of this line of reasoning would help in solving the current mystery of AQUARIUS/MJ-12.

The revelation of a UFO-related project by the name of AQUARIUS first appeared on the scene in what has commonly been referred to as the "NASA-telex" [AQUARIUS DOC]. This is the allegedly genuine document which describes several pieces of photographic film relating to incidents at Kirtland AFB and the case of Paul Bennewitz. As most knowledgeable people are aware, this document relates quite a bit of interesting information pertaining to official interest in UFOs as well as mentioning the existence of project AQUARIUS and something called "MJ-12". However, several key areas in this document were deleted by either the original source or by the recipient. It is interesting to note that there is a retyped version of this document which has circulated with the deletions filled-in, but with no explanation as to who retyped it or how the previously deleted areas were uncovered. Reportedly Peter Gersten was shown this document in 1983 and so it would seem that it has been around for several years. But if Gersten was the original recipient he has not revealed where he obtained it or from whom. This document would appear to be closely tied to the events at Kirtland AFB in 1980 inasmuch as it mentions Bennewitz and the Air Force interest in UFO sightings over military bases. Could the release of this document be related to the release of the initial document(s) concerning the events at Kirtland?

William Moore has stated that he was first given the initial Kirtland documents in Washington DC in early 1982 by an unnamed source and there have been several rumors circulated concerning heated arguments between Moore and Gersten over the means by which Gersten obtained these documents. Rumors aside, if Moore received his documents over one year after the incidents occurred then whoever gave him these copies must have had access to them either from AFOSI files in Washington or from the original sender at Kirtland. There are indications that William Moore received his copies from Richard Doty, the AFOSI Special Agent at Kirtland AFB. Other sources have also reported that Doty was involved in an effort to get information of this nature out to certain individuals for purposes unknown. And so it seems possible that Doty was responsible for the Kirtland documents and perhaps the "NASA-telex" being released as he would have been in a position to have access to such information.

Regardless, it would fall to serious UFO researchers to attempt to verify if the documents conveyed valid information, or disinformation. As interest began to focus on AQUARIUS and "MJ-12" several different FOIA requests were filed with various government agencies to try to garnish information on these subjects, but as recently as 1986 most of the leading figures in ufology were convinced that the document was a forgery and that Project AQUARIUS was nonexistent.

In 1985 I had filed several different requests with government agencies requesting information on three projects: Sigma, Snowbird and Aquarius; as well as any information pertaining to MJ-12 or Majestic-12. I specifically did not mention any connection or interest dealing with UFOs in these requests. With the exception of the National Security Agency every response I received was a denial of any knowledge of any of these subjects or titles. While they stated that Sigma and Snowbird were "not projects of this agency" and that they had no knowledge of MJ-12, they estimated that search fees for all information on Project AQUARIUS would be $15,000! It would appear that this is a rather expansive project. After several subsequent requests for clarification and to simply send the initial document which initiated the project the NSA stated that the project did not deal with "UFOs" and that as I would not be paying the fees they were concluding action on my requests. Subsequent appeals only clarified that Project AQUARIUS was classified Top Secret and that release of any portion of it could pose "grave danger to the national security."

Several individuals have considered the statement by the NSA that AQUARIUS does not deal with UFOs to be patently honest, and perhaps this is the truth. However I believe that to have expected the NSA to "roll-over" and openly reveal otherwise would be naive to say the least. It seems paradoxical that some "researchers" both expect these agencies to be deceptive but will readily accept some statements as totally accurate. I believe that there are sufficient reasons to suspect that the NSA project may actually be the project which is indicated in the "NASA-telex" which originally mentioned it and MJ-12. In the process of trying to verify the above document I had addressed a series of letters to what was designated the 7602 Air Intelligence Group (7602 AINTELG), as of 1983 known as the Air Force Special Activities Center. A Branch of the Air Force Intelligence Service, the 7602 AINTELG deals with human resource intelligence, much the same as the 4602 AINTELG which is known to have aided Edward Ruppelt in his investigations several years ago. This may or may not be coincidence and could be an interesting avenue for further research. Nevertheless, in the process of trying to get information on this group I had been receiving somewhat evasive response letters from AFIS. In a conversation with an Air Force source in which I had referred to my problems in obtaining information on this group I was informed that perhaps this is due to the fact that "they are a branch of the NSA!" This was at the time my first indication that there may be some NSA involvement, and was prior to my letters to NSA it-self. Within a few months I was to learn another interesting fact pointing to the NSA.

With the aid of well-known research Thomas Adams I was notified of a person who reportedly had heard a very interesting statement concerning the initial AQUARIUS/MJ-12 document. After speaking with this gentleman personally I was firmly convinced that the information he was relating was accurate as it had been told to him. He related that he had been told personally that this document had been changed in two ways, and that he had been told this by the individual who had changed it. Although both changes were not revealed, he had been told that the reference in the document to "NASA" had originally been "NSA"! And who was the person doing the telling ...none other than William Moore. In a brief conversation with Moore after this in which I asked him if he had any knowledge of this he simply stated "No comment." The recent issue of JUST CAUSE also contains the statement by Larry Fawcett and Barry Greenwood that they have been told that this document is actually a retyped version. This fact was reportedly revealed in 1983 to Peter Gersten by an Air Force officer and was either forgotten or over-looked until just recently. However, the Air Force source who is cited is said to be none other than Richard Doty himself.

In light of the fact that it has recently become common knowledge that Mr. Moore does (for his own reasons) delete documents which he obtains, and that he is rather aggressive in his research, I believe that Mr. Moore did in fact retype or have this document retyped. But does this negate the value of the document, or indicate that it is a hoax? Perhaps this explains why no one can verify if the document is genuine, because technically it is a forgery. It would appear that it is up to Mr. Moore to reveal a clean, accurate version and to finally reveal the facts behind its acquisition. According to filmproducer and director Linda Moulton Howe, she has had independent confirmation of MJ-12 and reportedly was shown a set of documents containing much of the same, if not identical, information. However, the actual name of the group in question was not "Majestic" but another similar sounding word containing the letters M and J. Could it be that the term "Majestic" was a substitution in a clever attempt to withhold a key bit of information which only someone with true inside information would be able to identify?

If there is reason to question the accuracy of the information pre-sented in the original AQUARIUS/MJ-12 document as well as the information in the recent documents pertaining to MJ-12, does this logically imply that the 1980 Kirtland/Bennewitz events should be considered questionable? Any single witness UFO sighting has always been somewhat questionable, this is exactly why we look for multiple witnesses and any other supporting evidence. If Richard Doty, or Paul Bennewitz were alone in reporting these incidents then the Kirtland events would never have become as major an issue as they have. However there were numerous individuals involved not only in the events precipitating the documents but in the preparation of the documents themselves. A brief summary of the incidents is as follows: Early 1980, Paul Bennewitz becomes involved in observing and filming objects which he has sighted on the ground and in the air near Kirtland AFB and the Manzano range. Reportedly his wife was also present to witness some of the first landings he witnessed and filmed in the Coyote Canyon area. Subsequently he contacts Earnest Edwards of the Kirtland Security Police who, over the period of the next few months, becomes concerned and requests the guards on the Manzano Weapons Storage Area report to him any sightings of unusual aerial lights. At the beginning of August 1980 three guards report sighting an aerial light which descends on the Sandia Military Reservation. This is the first sighting described in the complaint form signed by Richard Doty. Edwards reports the sighting to Doty unaware that Doty has already heard from Russ Curtis (Sandia Security Chief) that a Sandia Security guard sighted a disc-shaped object near a structure just minutes after the sighting by the three Manzano guards.

Doty includes these reports and several others in his Complaint Form and forwards the report to AFOSI Headquarters in Washington. From this point on many other persons became involved. Bennewitz was called down to a meeting at Kirtland AFB at which several major Air Force officers and Sandia personnel were present, including a Brigadier General. Earnest Edwards has confirmed that the three guards under his command re-ported what was described, and that the meeting took place. Bennewitz has confirmed that Doty and Jerry Miller came to his home to view his materials and there is a document signed by Thomas A. Cseh, Commander of the Base Investigative Detachment, to confirm this. Finally there is the complete set of documents which were released by AFOSI Headquarters under cover of the Department of the Air Force relating to the described events. There seem to be only two possibilities to consider. One: that this is one of the most profound deceptions that has been undertaken with the sanction of the USAF, involving a civilian, for purposes which can only be imagined. The other: that the events appened as described and that the intervening years, subsequent developments, and misguided researchers, have only clouded the facts. Perhaps there was also some effort made on an official level to defuse the sensitive nature of the events.

Would Richard Doty have perpetrated a hoax, involved other officers in his deception, sent the hoax on to AFOSI Headquarters, and then spread certain information to civilian UFO researchers? For what purpose? And would he still be in the Air Force if he was discovered, knowing the public relations catastrophe that could result from AFOSI in Washington have perpetrated a hoax, involved other officers in his deception, sent the hoax on to AFOSI Headquarters, and then spread certain information to civilian UFO researchers? For what purpose? And would he still be in the Air Force if he was discovered, knowing the public relations catastrophe that could result from AFOSI in Washington releasing the subsequent documents? If seems inconceivable that the Base Investigative Detachment, and the Department of the Air Force, would not have quickly and easily discovered the hoax and subsequently labeled the entire matter as such, knowing their previous predilection to do just that.

A few simple telephone calls have served to clarify much of the truth of the initial incidents. We must avoid the temptation at times to "shoot first and ask questions later" which can result in spreading mis-information ourselves. It is advisable to use tact in approaching witnesses as we have no God-given right to call up strangers and demand that they answer questions, particularly when sensitive matters may be involved. Is it any surprise that some of these people may not want to be bothered by every person who plies them with questions? A very bizarre but intriguing letter was sent to APRO in either late 1980 or early 1981 and is commonly referred to by the name of the initial subject of the letter, a Mr. Craig Weitzel. This letter refers to a sequence of events which occurred in the mid-1980's at both Kirtland AFB and in an area near Pecos, NM and also makes several statements to the effect that there is a UFO-investigation detachment stationed at or near Kirtland. The writer also goes on to mention among other things that there is at least one "object" stored in the Manzano storage area. That the letter was at least legitimately received at APRO can be ascertained by the vehement letter which Jim Lorenzen mailed out rebuking the gentleman who re-leased this letter without official permission from APRO. However, can we determine if this letter is a total hoax or is there even a grain of truth to be found in the information it conveys?

In a conversation I had with Craig Weitzel he claimed to know nothing of the details related in the letter, and denied that he took any photographs. Strangely enough, however, he did state that he and the other did see an unusual silvery object hovering high in the sky which left the area, to use his words, "exponentially"! He had been training in mountain rescue operations and he and the others had spelled out S-O-S on the mountain side using parachutes and were waiting for the rescue helicopters to spot them. While looking for these helicopters they notices the silvery "UFO". If this is all that occurred what could be the reason to fabricate such a letter and yet give the name and address of a witness who was sure to refute the claims? Was it just a bizarre practical joke?

The author of the anonymous letter claims that after Weitzel spoke with AFOSI agent Dody (sic) he did not want to have anything more to do with the matter and subsequently the Dody character denied that there had been any photographs. Was this a circumstance that could have been expected based on previous experience with Air Force handling of such matters? Many government and military witnesses often refuse to talk about their experiences to strangers either because of official pressure or simply for the sake of their own privacy. Motivation again must be considered in efforts to find the complete truth. In early October 1987 I had a strange conversation with an individual who is unknown to me except by first name and who initially knew absolutely nothing about my interest in UFOs.

During a telephone conversation which took place totally by chance, the subject of nuclear weapons came up as this person indicated some knowledge of this weaponry, being at the time a member of the Air Force. I jokingly asked to know everything there was to know about Kirtland AFB, but not due to my interest in nuclear weapons per se but because of something else I thought may be stored at Manzano that "isn't nuclear weapons." After a momentary chuckle this individual said, "yes...UFOs!" As astounded as I was I asked for a little clarification, and after relating my interest, I was told that there are two "objects" stored in the Manzano area from what this person had heard during conversations by Air Force personnel in Germany. There had been some discussion about something which was related to a UFO incident widely reported in German newspapers in 1981 being similar to something which "they" had "over here." Because of the circumstances under which this conversation occurred and the fact that I had in no way even alluded to the subject I believe that this may offer some support to some of the statements made in the anonymous "Weitzel" letter.

A final note of interest has come up in the newly released book on the "flying boomerang" objects reported in recent years in and around New York state [NIGHT SIEGE, Ballantine 1987]. In the process of investigating these incidents Hynek and Imbrogno were contacted by an individual who claimed to work for the NSA. They apparently verified this to their own satisfaction, and while this person professed that his interest was only personal, they were struck by the inordinate amount of interest this person showed in their investigations and any evidence they uncovered. There are even indications that their telephones may have been tapped. While it is unknown if this man's interest went further than personal curiosity, it is clear that the investigators felt there was something unusual about it. Nevertheless, here is yet another instance in which the National Security Agency seems to have crept into the picture.

Do the facts as outlined here cast reasonable suspicion on the NSA and its part in official interest in unidentified flying objects? I believe that they do and that there is justifiable cause to suspect that the project AQUARIUS which relates (at least in some way) to UFOs is probably an NSA, or NSA related project. It also still seems that in spite of the arguments and confusion concerning documents, the designation "MJ-12" must be considered if not a certainty, than at least potentially valid. Those who have taken the time to contact witnesses and obtain their statements and help, have the best chance to make up their minds for themselves, regardless of the confusion concerning altered documents which seems to be precipitating furiously. We do not want to throw the proverbial baby out with the designation "MJ-12" must be considered if not a certainty, than at least potentially valid.

Those who have taken the time to contact witnesses and obtain their statements and help, have the best chance to make up their minds for themselves, regardless of the confusion concerning altered documents which seems to be precipitating furiously. We do not want to throw the proverbial baby out with the bath water simply because the facts seem confusing. Perhaps even the confusion is being directed by someone somewhere. We should keep our sights fixed firmly on the major issues and the facts we can prove in our efforts to uncover the truth.

THE FACTS WILL SURFACE IF AND ONLY IF WE CONTINUE TO GATHER INFORMATION, ANY INFORMATION, IN THIS AREA. THE WHOLE PICTURE WILL EMERGE SOONER OR LATER. IT WILL BE INEVITABLE.

Your Guide To Bunker Spotting

By Matthew Williams

I was recently surprised whilst on a visit to Dover, via Folkestone, to have the opportunity to pass a few underground military bunkers. These are a very good example of the typical construction methods used in British bunker building. The purpose of this article is to help the reader understand the types of bunkers and how, if possible, to spot them. Later on we will also discover the latest information on Rudloe manor and some of the largest known bunkers in the UK.

is indeed nothing inside the structure except a metal grille and a deep air-breather hole!

Always look out for the classic slanted slope constructions, which will often have grass growing on the outside. These are a dead give away for having structures under the grass and soil.

Funnily enough, the use of grass on some of the smaller structures acts both as a natural form of air conditioner in the summer and provides excellent insulation for the winter. However as you will see in figure 3, there would hardly be room to move in such a small bunker so the obvious indication is therefore that this particular sloped bunker, is just an entrance point for a larger underground complex.

Seats of Government). I have observed countless numbers of these masts in use at RSG's so this may be possible evidence of RAF Ash being operational as a command post for civil management after an emergency. More often, with RSG bunker masts, you will see beam aerials which resemble TV antennae or folded beams similar to those in photo 5.

Next we can see aerial masts which seem to have a possible dual purpose, both as transmitters and air breathers or exhaust ports. These can be seen in photo 7 and photo 8. Many of these types of aerials can be seen near the coast in Norfolk near the Waxham area. The dual-purpose aerials seen in Norfolk are proof of underground facilities beneath them but only very small buildings (which must house staircases to the underground) exist. Norfolk is just another area which is riddled with underground bunker complexes.

MOULD REPEATERS

This RAF station has no runway and has no multi-beam aerial system so it is not a navigation station for RAF aircraft. This leaves only the possibility of communications and radio relay. To evidence this we find a microwave transmitter on an aerial mast.

In another super bunker under the Fort Halstead complex in Sevenoaks, Kent, there is rumoured to be work being carried out on genetics and alien technology. The alien technology claim was made by somebody

The first base to look at is called RAF Ash. This innocent looking "set-up" in fact houses an underground communications station and radio centre. The whole facility has air filtration systems which allow operation under conditions of nuclear or chemical attack. The air cleaner units and temperature control inlets can be clearly seen in figure 1. There will often be a few such air breather holes around, but to disguise their air-breathing purpose they will be housed in small structures which have slatted doors. These wooden doors offer little protection to whatever prospective things may be inside, and are the obvious give away that there

Microwave transmitters are always seen to have drum type aerials with a skin over the front to protect the apparatus from rain and dust. What most people might miss here is the fact that the mast itself can be used as an aerial to transmit and receive signals in lower bands - usually 14 - 30 meter bands. Microwave transmitters of this type are usually MOULD repeaters (British military communications system which makes extensive use of repeater stations and is encrypted) Another interesting point to note about the mast is that is a standard issue type for RSG bunkers (Regional anonymous who phoned a TV live phone in an said that there were UFO's stored there. If anybody can add substance to this claim we would like to hear from you. The Fort Halstead facility is very high security indeed, with the additional security measure of having Infra Red cameras installed in the nearby employee housing estate. Big brother was watching, us and it seems he watches his own too! We nearly got caught by Ministry of Defence for taking these photo's, but it seemed quite important since claims had been made about the UFO's being housed there.

Fort Halstead also uses similar aerials to those found at RAF Ash and even more of these can be seen at an American underground installation of the white cliffs.

The Dover underground complex is confirmed to be a major multi level installation, and it's communications traffic is dealt with by three large aerial masts, one of which is a multi-MOULD repeater. The peculiar thing about one mast is that it has a very unusual sub-mast in the shape of a pyramid beneath it. (See photo 8). It is not known what the purpose of this structure is and we would appreciate any information possible to help us identify what this object does.

have them!

The presence of a bunker has an important note. All bunkers require power and have to have backup generators in case of a power failure. In the past the needs of 28 mile long bunkers would be met via the use of Diesel submarine power-plants. (See photo 15) These are noisy, messy, break down quite often and require massive rooms to house and maintain

MONKTON FARLEIGH

We would like to now show you that not all bunkers are big on the surface, nor are easy to spot. The most sensitive ones probably could not be distinguished from a house or farm building from the outside! Are we kidding - no of course not. Take a look at the bunker entrance in photo 11. This is the Monkton Farleigh bunker, which has no less than 28 miles on tunnels. This was used as the single biggest bunker for TNT and ammo in the whole of Europe. It was constructed in 1937, towards the end of the second world war. It's construction and function matches many smaller bunkers which are still in use today. See our later feature on this bunker, which appears later on in this magazine, to learn more.

The truth of the matter is that bunkers can easily be hidden. Some bunkers in the town of Gastard in Wiltshire are completely covert, and the entrance points are found in barns on farms.

We are still trying to find these, but are not having much luck, but will show you the photo's as soon as we them. The 52 litre (!) diesel engines we saw at Monkton Farleigh were enormous and required large fuel supplies to run them. Two 50,000 gallon tanks were housed nearby for this purpose and could supply the two generators for a period of seven weeks.

NUCLEAR GENERATORS

Obviously today's bunkers would require just as much power, but due to the cold war - long term hideaway strategy - the requirement for power for longer periods would necessitate vast supplies of fuel. The running of such a complex would require 742800 gallons of fuel, and this is a major increase in storage space underground. For this reason it was decided many years ago in both Britain and the United States to use nuclear generators to supply power in such underground bases.

...And trapezoid bunker

The technology for nuclear generators had been tried and tested for military applications such as submarines and even some satellites (news of which is only starting to leak at the moment), and some new design warships. The technology, as far as we know, is reliable. If there have been any accidents with such nuclear power sources then the problems have certainly been covered up. The implications for using such nuclear power sources in underground bunkers which are very near populated areas is probably the reason why only recently the United States have come clean about their use, and the British are still tight lipped. Many of the Wiltshire bunkers, and those of Fort Halstead, RAF Ash and many others may be using nuclear power sources. The facts as to which are using them, and which are not may never come out, but whilst there are unanswered questions as to safety around nuclear power stations, and possible links from power stations to diseases like Leukaemia the question must be asked if the public have a right to know that is under their feet. People of the town of Corsham, in Wiltshire, have no idea that there is a nuclear generator under their feet, but this has been confirmed to us by staff who worked at the facility. So when are the government and military going to come clean on this issue?

Recently on British ITN News there was a news story about a joint, RAF, Army and Navy command station under Middlesex. The complex had satellite video links with other major bunkers around the country, though this was described as the key post. The news story describes how this facility is situated 100ft down. This would hardly suffice for any sort of bomb or nuclear attack so one wonders if the nuclear threat has disappeared or if this command post is just a smoke-screen!

So keep your ear to the floor and watch out for other bunkers being built in your area.

Quarries.

The astute bunker spotter will always make a connection between bunkers and quarry sites. Any military establishment that has either a commercial or military quarry site nearby must be suspected for having a bunker. The quarry often serves as a very good cover for deep mining operations. The coming and going of large pieces of equipment, such as tunnel boring devices etc. are easily concealed in the quarry workings. The removal of large amounts of earth and stone via the quarry is also disguised. Often in the case of many bunkers I have studied, when the work of bunker building is complete, then the quarry will close down. This has been shown time after time.

Bear in mind also that old quarries and workings, such as mines, are prime targets for military to take over. Some of the initial boring and digging out will have already been completed by the previous workforce and all the military then have to do is clean up or extend some of the tunnels, reinforce them, and rework or refit the safety systems such as air breathing equipment and emergency power generators.

One way of finding out if a quarry is, or

has been used by the military is to try and get the planning records from either your main library or council planning offices. Any secret establishments which are run by government or military will have their works and crystal formations would!

Local caving and mine exploration groups, in the area of interest, may be able to offer you the opportunity to explore the surrounding mines near military bunkers with them. In the case of Rudloe Manor, the box mines are used as air breathers for the underground tunnels, Shepton Mallet caving club go there often. This means that as you walk through the mines, you will eventually come to steel grilles and infra-red security cameras. Attempts to try to go any further towards the grilles are usually met with either direct response from inside the tunnel complex else by military police coming into the mine from outside or apprehending you upon your egress.

Be warned that mines are very dangerous places. Rock falls are frequent in some mines, and in rare examples threats such as gasses are present. Anybody who wants to attempt entry to a suspect mine should first make themselves aware of caving and mining procedures via handbooks on the subject (available from caving and rock climbing shops), and get protective items such as hard hats and possible waterproof gear - sometimes there are pools which have to be crossed inside tunnels! You will need lighting and spare batteries and bulbs to last well in excess of 4 times the expected stay (Time goes very quickly in caves for some reason...). Warm clothing is essential because even on a warm day, mines can be very cold deep down. If you did become trapped you would hope for some form of rescue, and of course this could not happen unless you tell people records removed from display. This may mean that the records are still there but cannot be shown to the public or other parties without strict approval. If you happen to know employees working in a position to be able to get hold of planning records then you can perhaps find out to what extent underground mines and quarries have been developed via them. Do not be put off by being told that records do not exist or have been mislaid. Even records which have been withdrawn have to be referenced!

Photo 11: Underground bunker systems need not be easy to spot. This small building is the main entrance to the once super secret Monkton Farleigh Weapons Stores. TNT and Ammo used to be sneaked in to this facility during World War 2. This deceptively small building is the entrance to 28 miles of tunnels. Monkton Farleigh is the father mine to Rudloe Manor which is approx. 15 miles. Monkton was stripped and sold off whilst Rudloe and others were kept on as command and intelligence centres. See our exclusive photo's of the facility, which should give an idea of what it is like at the Rudloe Manor tunnels.

Another thing to watch for is that when new military sites or bunkers are to be built, the planning permission has to be asked for via the local council. Every planning application can be seen in it's early stages. (This means building designs too) Copies of the textual applications can be seen even if the application is then made secret and it's technical designs withdrawn from public view. This can sometimes give a description of the scope and purpose of requested land, and who owns it.

SECRET BASES

If "front door" records do not yield any information then enquire with other local quarries and mines - they sometimes have copies of other mines details. Geological surveys are sometimes kept at libraries although these are sometimes subject to restrictions if near secret bases. You may have to give a reasonable excuse to get access to them. Saying you are a bunker hunter probably won't suffice as an excuse, but a geologist with an interest in local earth where you are going - be sure to leave clear details of the location of the mine and if possible your expected route to be taken through the mine. It is always advisable to go down mines with at least one other person. A rock fall or accident may incapacitate one person but not another!

Caving groups may be able to supply you with maps of underground tunnels, but be warned, these maps are sometimes not very easy to read and can get confusing. One way to help stop confusion is by the use of a compass and use of markers. Markers should be removable and taken away with you after leaving the mine.

Some people have been known to use paint or spray cans and chalk to show ways in and out of mines - don't do this as caves and mines are property and your marker signs are a form of vandalism and can be prosecuted for. Removable markers do not damage anything and as such your trespass is not "aggravated" and would not be prosecutable.

A problem with using other peoples permanent markers is that once a route becomes disused because of a rock fall etc.

then the signs will simply confuse. Too many people making a botching signs means that other peoples markers cannot be relied on. In the case of the box tunnels, there are about 150 different signs by various people. I would say that 90% are misleading and certainly do not represent clear emergency exit routes. This may be the reason that a group of inexperienced people recently went for a walk down the mines and got lost. Luckily people knew they were down there, but by the time the alarm was raised and rescuers sent for the group had already spent 20 hours underground. They were actually rescued after 30 hours and the mining team were shocked to see that they had no proper clothing and no light, as the matches they were using had run out! Don't get caught out like this!

Still, bunker hunting via inspection adjacent mines can be fun. Try to get permission for your exploration where possible, and don't get in to too much trouble by breaking and entering if you cannot get permission. I don't know of many sites that can be got to without permission but Rudloe Manor is one to start with. The Box freestone mines maps are available from Shepton Mallet caving club (we can supply details of this and other clubs by ringing us.) Any mines which you suspect or know are military connected we would like to hear about. And who knows, you may just uncover the inner earth, alien bases or even tunnels to Australia whilst you are down there!

Air cleaning equipment.

The old fashioned type of air cleaning equipment was simple but required a constant flow of water. This means that either a river or natural spring would have to be tapped in order to keep the bunkers air supply free of dust, radioactive particles and dust based chemical warfare agents. The air turbines would draw outside air in through air-shafts or unused tunnels and this air would be moved through the cleaning room. In the cleaning room pipes run vertically from the ceiling. Along the pipes are injector nozzles which spray a fine mist of water. The mist is thick enough to be able to moisten any rogue particles which come through with the air supply. These particles now being heavy with moisture will fall to the floor. In the floor of the cleaning room there is a drainage system which takes the dangerous liquid away. Provided the water keeps flowing then there is clean air for all. So things to look out for are outlets and inlets - water supplies inwards. MW.

Truthseekers HARDCORE

A conversation between Miles
Johnston and Barry
King, revised and written up by Matthew Williams.

Barry King has the most fascinating story to tell. He says that during the 70's and 80's he was involved in an Above Top Secret project involving aliens and human genetic experiments. He believes the world needs a wake up call to the truth of alien visitation and government cover-up.

"For the last 18 or 19 months I have been trying to get information out about secret base Berkshire. This base is underground a village called Peasmore but cannot be accessed from the village direct. Instead the only way to get to the base in from Hartnell Labs (Government Nuclear Experimentation centre in Oxford) or from Greenham Common Airbase. Tunnels run from these sites many miles to the village. 99 percent of the base is underground and you can see nothing on the surface. They have a few social engineering programming and mind control experiments there." By this he means ways of changing the way you think and react via information manipulation or direct stimulation of the mind with radio waves or electric pulses. American science has already admitted to experiments of this type with Microwave equipment. "They are also involved in Genetic experimentation and making of programmed life forms. They are also behind a lot of these so called abductions, and a lot are actually military abductions."

DEFENCE INTELLIGENCE

He claims that he was involved in the program between 1972 and 1988. He claims that with help from defence intelligence people he was able to get out of the program. "Certain people in the program don't like what is going on and these are the people who are helping me with the information. I am only allowed to release this information on a bit by bit basis and this is why it is taking so long to give the full picture."

Barry has for quite some time involved himself in the UFO subject but had not told people who knew him for his UFO interest that he was involved in such a project. Only recently have these disclosures come forth, and in his interest to get the message out further he created a newsletter. "Defence intelligence suggested the slow approach so he decided to created 'The Voice.'"

PUBLIC EDUCATION PROGRAM

It seems strange that any such project could stay secret for any amount of time but perhaps due to the excessive secrecy and threats made on personnel, leaks have been minimised. Barry feels that anybody connected with the program would deny that they are a part of it, and through hypnosis control, some do not even know the full scope of their jobs. The program still exists today and involves military control of the highest authority and even government doesn't know fully what is going on. However Barry says, "There has been a public education program and everyone knows this. They use magazines and films and books. The government wants to inform people of the alien stuff but have to do it slowly."

The program seems to have been active, although in early stages, since the 50's and possibly before. This may tie in with the genetic experiments which may have been started after the Roswell crash in 1947 and possible experiments on dead bodies of aliens - although these experiments, Barry claims, had a head start in the UK. "I have virtually been involved in a Government survey which started when I was a small boy. I was chosen in the 50's. By the time I was old enough to become involved in the real genetic experiments in 1970's the program was then running in the United States also and was fully operational."

Barry tells of another sinister aspect to the project, and how they fund themselves. "They are using spare body parts. It is similar to the scenario in the film COMA. The rich and famous, whether they know it or not, are making use of the service. COMA was so close to the truth. There are a lot of people who go into these secret bases and don't come out." To back up part of what Barry says, it has been confirmed that the Hartnell Labs have been very active in human experimentation projects which have used subjects who have no knowledge of their being experimented upon. In the 70's Hartnell was involved in radiation experiments on HEALTHY people, who after being given massive doses of cancer giving radiation, were then studied at their labs. The project went on for many years and was classified secret. Today leaks have revealed the extent of this treachery, and this ties in very much with the type of horrific plans other parts of Hartnell may have been involved in hatching. (This is 100% true!) Although it seems that the body parts business forms a small part of the funding, the money is not disclosed to government and so allows the project to operate in certain aspects without restraint.

“The main aim of the project is to manipulate the public's mind that there is a threat from outer space”, says Barry, “The real truth is that there are real aliens and that they have given a lot of the cloning technology to the military - but it is the military who are now using it to do the abductions and are trying to blame the aliens!”

WORKED WITH REAL LIVE ALIENS

Barry says that like many others who have come forward from the States he has worked with real live aliens. “There are various sorts of aliens and life forms at the bases. I worked at the base from August and December 79 in a security capacity. It's officially known as Peasemore and it is in Berkshire. The base was 450 yards by 650 yards and going down 6 levels. It may be double the size now. I was a security officer. I had limited access but I had two security access clearances of 9 and 31. I was allowed to see various areas of the base and by Dec '79 I had seen quite a lot.”

“The military use different alien life-forms for different tasks. Some do the abductions and some are used as frighteners such as the MIB's. In 79 they were working on a reptilian type and when I saw it this was the weirdest thing. It frightened the hell out of me. I didn't know what the purpose of this type was anyway, I was never told.”

Barry King believes that there is a new method of control which is being used on people on the base and may one day be used to control mass amounts of the population. This is through an implant which is placed inside the body and can be controlled by radio waves. “I have had two implants, one is behind my sternum. When it was implanted it crushed my chest and caused a heart attack back in 1980. This was done on purpose to show me that they had control over me and as a warning. The implant can be activated anywhere in the country. They use advanced laser surgery to put the devices in. The scale of surgery on employees of the project is vast.”

Another way that Barry remembers project members being controlled and manipulated is via the control of a device known as the “TRIP SEAT”. “This is an interface for you to be connected to a powerful computer. “They mind manipulate you with this device. It is similar to a dentist's chair. You are strapped into the chair. To get you to a level of acceptance of using the seat they use drug induced hypnosis, and this prepares you for the ordeal. When you are on the chair then you are pinned by it”, and this has left visible scars on Barry's arms near the elbow. “The device which pins your arms is like a silver strip with plastic on it.”

“There are several trip seats in the area, and when you go in the seat there is foam which is placed around you and this conforms to the body very tightly. When the machine is turned on you forget everything. They can reprogram your mind and change your memories of the past.” It all sounds like a plot from the Prisoner, but could any of this be true? Barry does claim to have papers and evidence of the base and his term of working, which could expose and prove some of the things he says went on at Peasemore, but these are held at a solicitors and he says that he has been threatened that if ever tries to go and use this evidence to prove his case, that he and his family will be dealt with by the authorities. The inference of the word “deal” seems rather terminal.

“The funds from the States are running on an all time high. The people who are coming forward to tell on the project are disillusioned because of the human genetic experimentation. The Nazi's were nothing compared to this. They are trying to create the perfect human and nothing is going to stop them. The Roswell alien may be part of this genetic experimentation, but it's only a possibility.”

REGENERATABLE LIFE-FORMS

“We got the technology from the aliens. They gave it to us. It not a friendly arrangement, it is more of a manipulation from the humans and the aliens. Our military wanted to get the technology and information and then wanted to stab the aliens in the back. The military don't care for the aliens because they know that the aliens are genetically generated beings who are not individual life-forms so they will use them and feel ok about abusing them. The aliens, on the other hand, want to abuse us because they are trying to get genetic material from us to create fertile and stable naturally regeneratable life-forms and form themselves a new race. For this they need humans. We are business to them. The military are letting them do this to a degree but there are more military abductions than alien.

Why does Barry think that people don't report these things? “They know that people who report alien abductions aren't really taken seriously and then there are those people they can frighten with the MIB stuff and won't talk anyway. Anyone who talks is usually ridiculed and the inference is never towards the military concerning abductions so they get away with it every time.

What else did he see? “They have these life-forms in jars lined up in rows and there are loads of them - rows and rows. To look at them is very spooky, sometimes frightening. The situation is out of control, and they seem to have this stupid policy of: use this technology to create this stuff at all costs.”

THREATENED AND INTIMIDATED

Although Barry has been allowed to speak about this to the public by those in defence intelligence who oppose the project, what has happened to him by those who are still working at the project? “I have been threatened and intimidated. They have said things like ‘You have some information and this information shouldn't be given to anybody else’ They also said ‘Isn't it funny how many children disappear these days’ Once I had arranged to meet a man who said he had seen a UFO. I met him near the sighting location. I went up to greet him and was accosted by men who came out of nowhere. These men bundled me into the car and took me to a suburban house in Brentwood. And they didn't offer me tea and sandwiches! In fact they gave me a good talking to. After they failed to move me on my opinions I was then beaten up a bit.”

So how does he feel now? “The more they lean on me, then the more I will squeal. They have said other things like ‘So many hit and run accidents these days, terrible isn't it’. If they could get me into the base and reprogram me then it's all over. They could erase my mind and I wouldn't remember anything about this stuff. They could call me and use a trigger word. This trigger word would be spoken and I would then go into a trance and go a location and be picked up by people.”

What are the Keywords? “I was first involved in the program in November 1972 so the first part is 1172 and then, I was first picked up in London so the prefix is Lima, so it's LIMA 1172 and then an electronic tone and then a cue and that's how the trigger is made up. They can use the triggers to control you in many ways. These post-hypnotic triggers seemed to have been planted via the use of the ‘Trip Seat’.”

Have any other people come forward to speak of the project? “I have given a list of names of people who are working on the program today in the documents I have released. Harry Reader, for instance, has been chasing over Europe and phoned me once or twice. He gave the trigger phrase to identify himself to me and related information over the phone. He was in the program and managed to get out. There was Robert Therwell and there were others, and the others were picked up. One was picked up in the Midlands and the other in Glasgow. I have not heard from Harry Reader since November. They could have got him or he may still be on the run.”

Why isn't Barry on the Run? “I am not on the run because the defence intelligence are looking after me. They are using me to a degree to release the information and this keeps me safe. They don't want to keep everything hidden so this is why they need people like me.”

PORTON DOWN

Are there any other places connected with these projects? “Porton Down is connected to Boscombe Down via an underground tunnel. Stuff from Porton Down is shipped to Boscombe down and then taken out via planes to America and other places. The cultures and small scale life-forms in early stages are shipped out of this facility. Fort Mead runs the operation in the states under the NSA. There are no holds barred with them and their control policies. It was their idea originally and it started in 1947.”

So shades of Roswell perhaps? “There are shades of James Forrestal. He was admitted to a hospital where they experimented with a lot of dodgy stuff and he died there. The drugs which they used to test there were dopamines, LSD, Sodium Penthanol (Truth serum). The types of drugs which they test there today are a lot more clever like Di-themerol and Di-themerol “C”. The latter is used in the hypnotic preparations for the ‘trip-seat’. When they use the ‘trip-seat’ they totally reprogram your mind. You can be easily controlled from that point onwards. The use of the drugs and the electronic manipulations puts you in a state of mind where you are totally open to suggestion. There is no way they can get deeper into your subconscious than this. Anybody who gets in that trip seat is literally the property of the NSA.”

Barry added, “I just hope that if one day they do decide to get me, then somebody will notice that I have changed my tune. I am releasing this information now, but one day if they take me back inside the base and erase my memory or put me under some form of control, I just hope that somebody notices that I am no longer saying the same things, or that I have dropped the subject - perhaps taken up tennis! This would mean that I have been ‘got’ to. That’s about the only thing I am scared of, that and the hit and run things and attacks on my family. I am not afraid of anything else really - I have seen too much.”

What other places are involved in this cover-up? “There are a few other places, one of which is Rudloe Manor, which at a place called Corsham in Wiltshire. They are involved in investigations to do with this sort of UFO stuff. Tim Good (UFO author) got involved in some investigations into this place and got as far as the perimeter fence before he got nicked. I knew about this place in 1979, but all this time - until very recently that is - they have denied the existence of a vast complex of tunnels there underneath which are used by the Military for various things. Nobody can get near this place.

[This facility has been discussed many times in Truthseekers magazine, and have fully confirmed the existence of a super active covert security force around this facility - the greatest security at a base that we have experienced.]

Now just to be cheeky I thought I would apply to go on the list of public persons who are supposed to be allowed to go down the facility each year and see the underground complex. I got a letter back from Liz Seracuse (sp?) from the RA Rudloe Manor Public Relations Department who said that my letter had been forwarded to the MOD at London to process the request. The reply came back that the site was a military facility and was covered by the official secrets act and no public could be allowed in. This was despite a statement to the television program Schofields Quest saying that public could apply for a tour of the facility.”

[We at Truthseekers were to find out that public relations and press officers who were based at Rudloe Manor were to deny that public relations or press office functions were carried out at the facility even though we have spoken to them on a few occasions and had the persons names and telephone extension numbers. The lies and deceit is not fitting with a normal military establishments. Why should the military be allowed to lie to us the public. Is it in the interests of national security to lie?]

ENHANCE PSYCHIC ABILITY

Barry then goes on to say, “One of the things they do at the base is to reprogram the mind so that it becomes hard for telepathic people to read. It is a security procedure. People such Lisa Williams who are able to read minds could normally pick up and sense things from people. She cannot pick up anything from me because my thought processes are different - they have been scrambled. It works the other way too - they can enhance psychic ability. So when they are looking for people to experiment on or to process at the base, if they get hold of somebody who is not only a threat, such as a researcher, and if they happen to be psychic then they are on to a winner. It's two in one. That person is going to become a very useful tool to them. One interesting thing that I found out was that Lisa Williams the psychic knew about the Peasemore base in Berkshire and she had found it out from a Ouija board - contacting grey aliens through this. It is interesting confirmation to hear about this from somebody else who has no connections to the base and get's it from aliens!”

in Swindon and there is also a facility near Swindon.”

“There were a series of photographs which were taken at the base. These were taken by defence intelligence agents, some of whom were intercepted whilst taking the photos. I was told, in a round about way that these agents were posted overseas, if you catch my drift. Still some of the photos got through and were delivered to me by stopping me in my truck on a journey to Wales back in 1988. These photographs showed many of the things I have spoken about which are at the base. The idea behind giving me the photos was that at a certain time in the future I would be told to release them to the public. So for safety I had to place these photos somewhere safe. I did this by depositing them at a firm of Solicitors in town (Chelmsford). I arranged that I could collect them on a certain telephone cue. On a number of occasions I made the cue to collect the photos and it seems that my calls were being listened to, and that they knew my plans. I was followed by a Sierra car, well out of my way, and when I dodged away from the solicitors and was in front of the Essex County Council buildings they pounced on me. The Sierra mounted the pavement and two men got out and grabbed me. This was witnessed by many people, but nobody did anything. The men then took me to the library and found a quiet area and sat me down. We had a twenty minute conversation in which they made it known to me that if I was to try to collect the photographs at any time I would be stopped and there would be great problems for me."

Barry was asked why the agents simply didn't go to the Solicitors and get hold of the photos for themselves. Barry replied, "All I can say is only I can get the photos, and it seems that they don't mind leaving the photos there, as long as they know that I am not going to get them. I don't know quite why this is, but that's the situation."

Barry was then asked if he was accompanied by a force of people, would he be prepared to get the photos. He was not happy about the idea due to the threats that were made. Still he stated that if he were given permission to get these documents and photos, it would help prove a lot of his case. "There are details of the base and medical and personal information on me which stems right back to 1954, when they started the survey and were looking at me. I am waiting for the time that I can go and get those photos by defence intelligence."

The question was asked about the implant situation. "Back in 1975 when I was at the base, we were all told that there was a new procedure taking place and that it was quite routine and many people would be involved in tests. They said that they wanted to test a new piece of equipment that would stop signals from the brain passing to parts of the body such as the hand, and to see if they could then control those parts of the body with help from computers. It certainly worked because they were able to control my hand perfectly with this implanted device which went in on the back of the hand. They did take the device out afterwards and they left a scar behind. In fact they made a bit of a hash of it if you ask me. This was just a test, but it showed me how the devices worked. I am sure that one day this technology could be used to control people en masse under the form of some people. They want you to do what they say - this is what it is all about - you must do as you are told. So the mind control and the implants are part of that power and control. I am not sure who is at the very top of the control system, whether it is Aliens for instance. I did meet some of the classic type greys at the base - they were not the programmed life form types. The programmed life forms had round eyes, the real aliens had the familiar wrap around slanted eyes. This is always the best way to tell them apart, look at the shape of the eyes."

So what is the truth behind the secret underground bases? Are we indeed being manipulated by our military in a sick lie which makes everyone targets for experimentation and mind control? Who can say for certain. Perhaps Barry King is telling the truth - perhaps not. One thing is for certain, he is not the only person who has come forward to speak about these horrid facts. If he is right then the human race may need a wake up call - but as I always say, do your own research and make your opinions based on not what others say but by what you find out yourself. I hope that Barry is wrong, but somehow I suspect there may be some truth in parts of what he says. Time will tell.

PAST LIVES - COURTESY OF HYPNOSIS

BY ANDREW J GROOM

Reincarnation has always been a comfortable idea for the religious, bereaved, and dying, but is there any substance in it. Is it possible for a person to live and die and live again? If your personal view is yes then does it imply that there must be some form of universal logic governing the goings on of each individual. A god perhaps - a cosmic subconscious? Fortunately for us in these days of enlightenment, past lives can be studied to scientific standards if required (or if there was any money in it). Is this a bold claim? After much research into the subject I must say I think not!

There is an art which is coming to life, and this art is past life regression, and this occurs when a subject is in a moderately deep hypnotic trance and then help to guide him or her back to hidden memories - back to a time before they were born. You then look for a set of memories of previous lives from before the birth date of the subject. Do not be surprised if a male subject regresses to a female, as a person can regress into a past life where they exist either as a man or woman or vice versa.

In my experience, once hypnotised and the subject finds he is able to vividly recall the events of his first birthday, he will then regress to a past life with ease. I must stress that the hypnotist must have a good knowledge of his craft before embarking on PLR because it is quite possible for the person to carry back to the present some pains experienced in such a past life - and although temporary these can sometimes last for a few hours. For example a person in his past life died violently in the battlefield trenches of World War I. After regression to this event, in which he was supposed to have died due to a back injury, the subject complained of having back pains for a few hours after re-awakening from the hypnotic trance.

The first stirrings of the regressed subject will usually indicate that they have found themselves in a new situation. Indications can be; a howl of pain, a smile or a passive state, etc. Usually they will not be able to remember specific items of information such as names, places etc., but this amnesia decays with persistence of questioning, i.e.: A person being asked about a fathers name may jolt their memory of their own surname. On the whole, the subject is able to give quite a detailed account of their previous existence. I often find that the subject's date of birth in is approximately 50 years past their death in the previous life.

The subject can be taken back and forth in his memories through dates and places, names and faces, just as in present life hypnosis. Basically he lives the life of a person who has existed before he was born. More interestingly, the recollection of lives gone by can be verified and often regressions tend to be factually correct. I suggest that you collect as much data on the regressed subject as possible, such as names of people, streets and possible language uses and 'slang' of that era - in general take as much detail as possible. There are vast records and archives available at places such as libraries, which allow the opportunity for you to verify the data given to you.

In the interests of scientific accuracy it is important that verification takes place after a full and vigorous account of the regressed life has been obtained. This will avoid the possibility of leading questions by the hypnotist to the subject, and thus ensuring that the information collected was not previously known by either the hypnotist or the subject. You can then rely on the information obtained.

These are the ground rules.

- 1 Use a hypnotist who has some previous experience of past life regression.
- 2 The subject is able to start his past life regression only when he can remember his first birthday in his present life.
- 3 Suggestion should now be made to, "Go back, back through the mists of time", and to state that, "You are looking for a set of memories of anybody or anyone back before the time you were born." (This procedure is normally complete when you see the subject react or 'stir' in some way).
- 4 Once regressed, don't be surprised if the subject takes on a different mannerism. This is to be expected. Also don't be surprised if the subject takes on the persona of a famous historical character, as the subconscious mind is prone to fantasising - hence the need for strict verification procedures. False memories can sometimes be derived from stories that have been read or from portrayals in films, etc. (Note, the subject who fantasises a past life doesn't do so wilfully, indeed the subject is in the dark as to whether the regression is real or not unless verification is carried out.)
- 5 Collect as much verifiable data as is possible.

Here are some questions that are easily checked:

- 1 What is your name/ children's names/ parents names /wife's names?
- 2 Where were you born?
- 3 What rank and number were you (if regressed to a soldier, which I find is pretty common).
- 4 Where were you or your parents married?
- 5 What languages do you speak? (An interesting one if the subject regresses to a bilingual persona. For instance, if the subject can speak a foreign language have him demonstrate it, record it and

6 Can you play an instrument? (Have the subject demonstrate this ability).

Basically if the subject can recall events that he could not possibly know in this lifetime, or can speak a language that he does not know, then there must be something going on that one must consider unusual to say the least! However, be aware that the human mind is capable of taking in a lot more information subconsciously that is normally known, or recalled; for instance, cases have been recorded whereby in a past life regression, different languages have been spoken even though although the subject did not consciously know how to speak a foreign language. In this example the person involved was a cleaning lady who worked at a university. At first this would not appear to be grounds for suspicion. The lady was found to be able to speak Spanish under regression. It was later found out that she cleaned the lecture room of a Professor of Spanish who would often be teaching students after hours whilst she was cleaning. Although she did not take any notice of the lessons, she inadvertently picked up the use of the language subconsciously and this came forth in the fantasised regression. Again the need for strict verification is of paramount importance.

To summarise we can take a person whom we will call Joe Brown, and we hypnotise him and have him recall events in his current life. We gradually take him back year by year. If Joe can recall memories when he was a baby then he is ready to be regressed. Once Joe Brown has then regressed to John Smith (for instance), ask John Smith about his life and experiences and get some verification data. Take as much of this data and verify it at the appropriate library or record office. If John Smith lived in Skegness then you may find records of John and his family if you go to Skegness library.

So Joe Brown has regressed to John Smith, and Joe gives us lots of details about John Smith's life and we have verified these at the reference library at Skegness and found that Joe has given us a very apt description of the life and times of John Smith. So does this prove coincidence, reincarnation or cosmic memory or another explanation? There are a number of theories, but by definition us Truthseekers should look for our own answers. To this end I invite you to read a few books on the subject and then to go out into the world and experiment. Have your own past lives checked. This is a very enigmatic subject, as is hypnosis, but I believe it can help give some reassurance to people who are puzzled by life and it's mysteries.

Ley Lines In South Glam.

By Jane McCarthy

For the last two years I have spent my spare time investigating realigning and healing of ley lines in Cardiff and surrounding areas. Most of the energy centres are in prominent locations connecting up with what I call "sub-stations" usually churches and old historical sites where monuments have been erected. In some cases where the leys meet, our own Victorian ancestors have erected a folly such as a made up stone circle. These stone circles, although relatively new compared with places such as Stonehenge can still have the same potential once healed and working.

Around Cardiff I have located approximately six energy centres and I think that it is no mistake that Castle Coch is built over one centre. When dousing an energy centre it appears as though no leys are present as lines are going constantly in and out. These centres are very strong and after being inside them over the years I now tingle every time I am near one. The sub-stations usually have six to eight lines, three or four going in and out. The leys criss-cross the country, however, there are certain dominant lines which meet at a lower more central point.

For example: One dominant line starts on the Ordnance Survey map number 171 just outside Tinkinswood at Long Cair Stones. This connects with the remains of a Roman Villa through Pontcanna Church on to Rhymney Castle coming out of Cardiff and again through the centre of another church in Marshfield.

I have actually healed all these sites mentioned above and the dominant line is now working. But what is interesting is that another dominant line coming down from Ystrad cutting through Rhiwbina Wenallt also meets at Pontcanna Church. Although Pontcanna Church is a definite energy centre working it is up for sale. I feel compelled to say that the healing of this church was not an easy matter. I felt warned off the site for a long time and felt very uneasy until completing the actual healing.

Many dominant lines go through Pontcanna, not only the two I have mentioned. This is obviously an important site and I note with no surprise that there have been a lot of UFO sightings in this area. The energy is a natural force which at present has not been used or husbanded for centuries. But it is obvious that our ancestors knew the importance of this energy which can be used for negative or positive purposes. At the present time the energy in many areas is negative and I do not recommend any novice attempting healing, as certain black/negative leys can give very strong side effects such as sickness, lethargy etc. I know of one person who was physically ill for two weeks when being in contact with a negative energy centre. In order to heal this type you need to be able to spiritually protect yourself.

The sub stations as stated above are usually churches etc. and as I feel that I going on to a very controversial subject- I must add that most of the churches needed healing except two in the centre of Cardiff. My son and I can tell you the time when a service is taking place at our local church as both of us tingle. This energy can be used in many ways. When a person goes to church he/she is spiritually uplifted and feels great. The energy is being used positively.

Most of my life I have been spiritual and psychic and I believe that I could not entertain the healing of leys without spiritual guidance. There are many people doing this work throughout the country without any instruction from a physical book or person. The lines once healed can be used positively through the sub stations which in turn heal the people. At this present time my work on the 1-ays is being delayed by an interest in spiritual healing and energy balancing of individuals. I have found that like the centres, which can be either positive or negative people who, if you think about it, are part of this earth, can also be positive or negative as every living thing contains energy.

A paper written by Ronald Pearson, an engineer, has completely discarded Einstein's outdated Theory of Relativity and by making a couple of additions to Sir Isaac Newton's physical laws, has matched up with quantum mechanics which provides a totally satisfactory solution of quantum gravitation. A paper written by R D Pearson "Key to Consciousness Quantum - Gravitation" shows that a primary consciousness lies at a sub quantum level of reality: in the invisible. In simple terms, Einstein forgot to take into account the energy force of the apple thrown.

We cannot see radio waves with the naked eye, but we know they exist. Newton's theory of Ether proves the invisible which opens up a new field of research into the so called paranormal phenomena.

In real life, we fight to obtain this energy from each other but by using the natural earth energy there is no need.

In my research I have found that when more negative energy is present in anyone there are emotional or physical problems. These problems can be eradicated by energy balancing and teaching a person to balance themselves.

I have now decided to give consultations for spiritual healing and awareness plus energy balancing and if anyone is interested please contact me on Cardiff 01222 522163 or if you wish to know more as obviously not everything can fit into a small article.
